WORSHIP ORDER

August 24, 2025
11th Sunday after Pentecost

Prelude

Chiming the Hour

Preparing for Worship

*Call to Worship

Some promises take root before they show.
Some blessings arrive without fanfare - just a voice, a greeting, a quiet joy shared.

We are here to bless what is growing,
to honor what is beginning,
to speak hope out loud.

Faith doesn't always look like certainty.
Sometimes it sounds like a welcome
or feels like a hand held longer than expected.
Let this hour be a room of joy,
a gathering of trust,
a place where the holy is gently named.

Come, let us offer praise to the One who meets us in promise.

Hymn of Praise (No. 39)

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Faithful God,
we struggle to trust what we cannot yet see.
We want clarity before commitment,
proof before praise.
You offer joy through presence,
blessing through welcome,
and hope through relationship.

Forgive our hesitation.
Help us believe in your promises,
and bless what you are growing—
in us and among us.
Amen.

Assurance of Grace

Hear these words from the Epistle to the Romans:
"For I am convinced that neither death, nor life... nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord."
God's grace is not shaken by our hesitation.
It holds firm even when we waver.
When we resist the hard road or question our role, God's Spirit meets us still - renewing us for what is next.

Friends, believe the good news:
We are always already loved! Thanks be to God!

Response to the Gift of Grace (No. 581)

GREATOREX

Glory Be to the Father

Passing of the Peace

May the peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

Song of Community (No. 301)

TWO OAKS

Let Us Build a House (v. 1)

*Let us build a house where love can dwell
and all can safely live,
a place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions,
rock of faith and vault of grace;
here the love of Christ shall end divisions:
all are welcome; all are welcome;
all are welcome in this place.*

Affirmation of Faith From The Confession of 1967, §§9.45–9.46

In Jesus Christ, God was reconciling the world to himself.

We believe this reconciliation is the ground of peace, justice, and freedom among the nations.

The church lives out this calling when it practices forgiveness and seeks peace across every line of conflict.

We believe Christ summons us to risk comfort and security for the sake of cooperation and understanding.

Nations may serve God's purposes in history, but no nation or way of life may claim God as its possession.

We confess that when the church identifies the cause of God with the power of the state, it denies the Lordship of Christ.

God's reconciliation in Christ makes plain: enslaving poverty in a world of abundance is intolerable.

Because Jesus identified with the needy and the exploited, the cause of the poor is the cause of his disciples.

The church cannot evade responsibility in economic affairs, nor condone poverty through silence or indifference.

We believe all gifts and resources are entrusted to us by God—to sustain families, to build community, and to advance the common welfare.

A church indifferent to poverty, or open to one social class only, mocks God's reconciling love.

We believe true worship is shown in justice and mercy, as we follow Christ who casts down the mighty and lifts up the lowly.

Prayers of the People and The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever. Amen
