Prelude

Chiming the Hour

Preparing for Worship

*Call to Worship

When the forces of oppression thought they could stop the gospel,

God turned scattering into sending.

What seemed like defeat became victory,
what looked like ending became beginning.

The good news traveled on the feet of the scattered, reaching places it had never been before.

How will God's Gospel cut through the chaos?

Here I am. Send me.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

God of surprising purposes, you advance your mission
even through upheaval and uncertainty, turning our displacement into our calling.
Yet we often fail to see your hand at work when circumstances shift around us.
We mistake your redirection for rejection,
your expansion for abandonment.
When plans change and paths diverge,
we assume you have forgotten us.
Help us trust your purposes
even when we cannot see the way forward, that we might be faithful witnesses wherever we find ourselves.
Amen.

Assurance of Grace

Where we see only failure,
God sees opportunities for grace.
Even in our brokenness,
God's song over us remains the same:
You are forgiven.
You are loved.
You are included in God's expanding kingdom of grace.

Friends, believe the good news:

We are always already loved! Thanks be to God!

And also with you.

TWO OAKS

Let Us Build a House (v. 1)

*Let us build a house where love can dwell and all can safely live, a place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions,
rock of faith and vault of grace;
here the love of Christ shall end divisions:
all are welcome; all are welcome;
all are welcome in this place.*

Sermon

Scattered but Sent

Elder Kim Mitchell

Affirmation of Faith

From The Confession of 1967

The church confesses its faith when it bears a present witness to God's grace in Jesus Christ. ...

With an urgency born of hope, the church applies itself to present tasks and strives for a better world. It does not identify limited progress with the kingdom of God on earth, nor does it despair in the face of disappointment and defeat. In steadfast hope, the church looks beyond all partial achievement to the final triumph of God. "Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to do far more abundantly than all we ask or think, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen."
