

Lesson 7

Freedom

How do you define freedom?

Do you agree with Kant's statement: "Ought implies can?"

What is the difference between determinism and freedom of choice?

What are the principles of universal causality?

Why is freedom important to us?

Do we have a “schizophrenic view of freedom?”

Is freedom a cultural idea or universal in nature?

Can we have freedom in society but not in religion?

What is good and bad about freedom?

The First Amendment talks about the freedom of speech. Is that true, or do we have limits on it?

The “Darkness of the Cave” talks about the condition of the Blacks. Is that true not just of blacks but of any group?

What is the difference between negative, positive, and absolute freedom?

Is life based on determinism?

How do determinists, indeterminists, and existentialists each view the role of consciousness in a person's life?

How would you define your view? As a determinist? As an indeterminist? As a compatibilist?
As a Libertarianist/Existentialist?
