Your responsibility, by God's enabling, is to consistently apply the divine principles and truths you have heard (Philippians 2:1-13; 1 Timothy 4:7-9; James 1:22-27).

As you meditate on this message, ask yourself these questions:

- How does God want my beliefs/actions to change?
- How can I accomplish this change?
- What is the first step toward bringing about this change?

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE PERSECUTED CHURCH

Globally, more than 300 million Christians live in places where they face a high level of persecution for their faith. The International Day of Prayer is a time to remember all those who share our faith, but not our freedom. This special day is set aside as a global prayer meeting on behalf of persecuted Christians who stand as bold witnesses to Christ on the world's most dangerous mission frontiers. The earnest prayers of the global body of believers testify to the unity found only in Christ.

*If one member suffers, we all suffer together;
if one member is honored, all rejoice together.*
1 Corinthians 12:26

GENERATIONS OF GRACE

The following lesson was taught today in Sunday school (1st-6th grade). If you have children, please take time this week to review the lesson with them.

TITLE: God is chosen by Israel

PASSAGE: Joshua 23-24

PRINCIPLE: Believers must obey God wholeheartedly while living in a sinful world.

ASK: Why was living with the Canaanites dangerous for Israel?

APPLY: By doing what God's Word says, no matter what other people say.

THIS WEEK: As a family, read Joshua 23-24.

NEXT WEEK: Judges 1:1-3:6

ANNOUNCEMENTS

For the month of November we are collecting a special Christmas offering for our missionaries. If you would like to give toward this, please mark your gift as "Christmas in November." See insert for more information.
