

Chronological-Event Bible-in-a-Year Reading Schedule

Reading the Bible chronologically in a year means following the events as they happened, weaving history, prophecy, psalms, and New Testament events into one flowing historical account of biblical events.

How it Works:

1. Event Order: Instead of traditional book order, it arranges scripture by when events occurred.
2. Integrated Reading: Prophetic books (like Isaiah) are placed alongside the historical books (like Kings) they comment on; Psalms and Proverbs are read with the events they describe.
3. Daily Portions: The Bible text is divided into 365 daily readings, often around 15 minutes or a few chapters, making it manageable.
