Greetings from the Campana's you're ambassadors to Juarez, Mexico.

Family News – On October 4th Sylvia and I, our daughter Becky and her husband Andrew, and our son Daniel travelled to Vero Beach, Florida to celebrate our parent's 75th wedding anniversary. We are blessed to have such wonderful parents alive!

Ministry news – to God be the glory we have had five adult baptisms during the past three months bringing the total to 28 for 2025! Among the baptized were Antonio and Ninive Garcia, a couple I was able to lead to Christ during the evening service and are now being discipled in their home. During our October Soul-winning marathon event in October the Lord gave us seven 1st time visitors and 90 people in attendance, with many receiving Christ. During the November soul-winning marathon the Lord gave us nine 1st visitors, 100 people in attendance, and many saved, including teen Alexis Jimenez who was led to Christ by our son Danny. Five of our six Bible college students arrived home recently. They organized a Christmas evangelistic event with 122 children and dozens of parents in attendance, and 67 kids professing faith in Christ as Savior. Among those receiving Christ was Señora Rocio Mateos, the aunt of one of our new members, Silvia Mateos. Silvia had been praying for her salvation for months. Lastly, Pastor Ruben Menes from Las Cruces, New Mexico recently donated a piano for our church orchestra. Last Sunday nine members gave a music recital in our evening service.

Property News – Sylvia and I are trying to acquire a 3500 square meter property at the entrance of the neighborhood where we presently have our church. The Juarez Municipal government has requested that we obtain a blueprint from a topographic engineer and submit that with other documents to see if its is available for donation or purchase. Unfortunately, we must wait till the new year for their office to reopen.

Please pray for God's provision for a church property, for more souls to be saved and baptized, for spiritual growth for our new believers, for God's blessing upon our son Daniel and our church teens, for our daughter Becky who is due to give birth this February, and for our safety. Thank you, beloved brothers, and sisters, for your faithful prayers and financial gifts that allow us to reach Juarez for Christ.
