

Devin Howard - Testimony

My life before coming to Jesus was a mess. I never really had any religious views. Although my mom and dad were Christian and they said I had been to church when I was little, I stopped attending the older I got. I found myself talking to God and asking for things and not truly believing. I didn't know about the Holy Trinity and what that meant and I honestly had some agnostic views. I believed someone or something was there but didn't know what it was or who it was. I've struggled with multiple sins throughout my life. Pride lust envy and life just felt heavy I was very worried all the time and I had a friend asking me to come to church with him and asking "when am I going to give my life to Jesus?" I would come a few times with him and then during the event last September when we had service outside. I just remember looking up and having this feeling washing over me as I sat and listened and I truly believe it was all a sign from the Lord and he was asking me to come to him and that day changed everything. I believe the Lord extended his hand through that service and invited me to join him in the kingdom of heaven. Me and my wife started going to Foundations and they lovingly told us we were living in sin. We weren't married at the time and we were living together. When this happened, we were tore up by it but we didn't give up. We continued to attend service and life groups and 242 and on May 10 we got married and started aligning ourselves with God and Jesus. Today, I want to further my surrender and obedience to God and be baptized.

My favorite verse is Philippians

4:13 I can do all this through him who gives me strength
