

Just a note...

May is basically calendar chaos 🤪—you’ve got graduations 🎓, sports playoffs 🏆, Mother’s Day 🌸, Memorial Day trips 🚗, and about 47 other things happening all at once.

In the middle of all that, it’s super easy to let your time with God get shoved to the bottom of the to-do list. But here’s the truth: your relationship with Jesus is the ONE thing you can’t afford to skip. Not even for sleep 😴 (and yes, that one hurt me too).

So here’s my advice: 📅 Schedule time with God.

🚫 Then guard it like a grumpy cat protects its nap spot. Be politely stubborn.

👊 Say “nope” to distractions—even good ones—if they get in the way.

Keep Jesus first, and the rest of the chaos will be way easier to handle.

God > Everything else. Always.

Speak boldly. Live loudly.
Love deeply. Share Jesus.

THINGS TO KNOW...

Serve This Summer

Summer is the perfect time to put your faith into action! There will be plenty of opportunities to serve—whether it's helping with VBS (July 22-25), lending a hand to church members, serving in our community, or stepping up in other ways. Stay tuned for details and be ready to make a difference while growing in your faith!

May Teaching Series: Sharing the Hope of Christ

This month, we're diving into evangelism—what it means to boldly and lovingly share the Gospel with others. Each week, we'll explore a different aspect of living out our faith and pointing people to Jesus through our words, actions, and personal stories. From the Great Commission to the power of your testimony, we're learning that sharing Jesus isn't just for pastors—it's for all of us.

Did You Know?

May is National Salad Month, Hamburger Month, Bike Month, Egg Month, and Barbecue Month—so basically, it's a confusing time to plan dinner.

Also... Evangelism isn't just for extroverts. You don't need a megaphone or a theology degree—just a heart that loves Jesus and a willingness to open your mouth (or at least your life).

So go ahead: share the Gospel... maybe while eating a hamburger on a bike with a boiled egg in your pocket.

Just saying.
