EVERYDAY WORSHIP

Recently, I completed a 27-day devotional with a few members of the worship team that focused on worship. More often than not, the devotionals weren't even about worship in the context of music, but what it looks like in every other moment of our lives. Here are a few things that stood out to me, and that I'd love to share with you, church family:

"Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship." - Romans 12:1

Yes, we're called to praise God with songs, but worshiping God goes so much further than that. We are to dedicate our whole lives to bringing God glory! We worship Him when we speak with love, when we give with open hands, when we flee from sin, when we serve one another—the list goes on!

"Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name. For the Lord is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations." - Psalm 100:4-5

As Christians, we should be known for our gratitude. Yes, this is hard sometimes. Often, it's easier to grumble. But we bring God and His kingdom glory when we count our blessings. This doesn't mean we can't experience sorrow, but that we can hold joy at the same time.

"For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do." - Ephesians 2:10

God designed each of us uniquely. We each have strengths, passions, and talents that are specific to us. Yet we each have the same purpose: to bring God glory.

Starting today, let's see our whole life as worship to the Lord.
