

Lottie's Life: A True or False Game

KIDS VERSION

1. Lottie Moon was born in July.
[FALSE: December]
2. Lottie grew up in Virginia. [TRUE]
3. Lottie's first name was Chelsea.
[FALSE: Charlotte]
4. Lottie's middle name was "Digges."
[TRUE, but she jokingly told people that the D in her middle name stood for devil.]
5. Lottie grew up in a Christian home and learned about Jesus when she was a child. [TRUE]
6. Lottie was taller than most people.
[FALSE: She was known for being petite/short.]
7. Lottie lived on a large farm/estate.
[TRUE]
8. Lottie was an only child.
[FALSE: Lottie had six siblings that survived into adulthood.]
9. Lottie once convinced her siblings to go against their mother's rules and work in the kitchen on a Sunday.
[TRUE]
10. Lottie moved away to live at a boarding school when she was a teenager.
[TRUE]
11. Lottie never missed a chapel service at her boarding school.
[FALSE: She missed twenty-six services.]
12. To start the school day late, Lottie once cut the rope that hung the school's bell.
[FALSE: She stuffed her bedsheets in the school's bell.]
13. Lottie's favorite subject at school was math. [FALSE: She enjoyed studying languages like Latin and French.]
14. Lottie's friends and family continually prayed for her salvation. [TRUE]
15. Before Lottie decided to trust in Jesus, she was kept awake all night by a rooster crowing. [FALSE: a dog barking]
16. Lottie was eighteen when she accepted Christ and was baptized. [TRUE]
17. After graduating from two different schools, Lottie earned money as a mail-person. [FALSE: as a teacher]
18. Lottie supported missions work around the world by teaching the Bible in Sunday School, praying for missionaries, and giving money toward missions. [TRUE]
19. Lottie listened to God's voice and decided to move to India. [FALSE: China]
20. Lottie sailed on a boat to China when she was thirty-two years old. [TRUE]

