PRAYER OF ILLUMINATION

God the Life, you are calling us to come before you. So, we are here in answer to your call in our life. You created the heavens and the earth and placed us here for life and hope. We know your dream for a world that is righteous and just, a world you promise will come to pass. Breathe your Spirit upon us again and again, and bring to life our passion for your bold vision. Make us lights to those who sit in darkness! In the name of Jesus, who descended into the waters of baptism to show us the way to righteousness, and of the Soaring Spirit, who alights upon those who arise from these life-giving waters. Amen.

Sermon Summary

God's Sabbath in Christ (Hebrews 4:8-16)

Summary: Today, God calls us to participate in his Sabbath-rest through his Word and his grace in Christ, the high priest.

1. God's purpose of redemption – God's Sabbath-rest

God calls us to the Sabbath-rest. Happiness is God's purpose in calling the people of Israel out of slavery. God intended not just to set them free from their slavery but to give them happiness and rest.

Hebrew 4:8, 11 For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken later about another day...so that no one will fall by following their example of disobedience.

The destination of the people of Israel, who came out of slavery, is not the wilderness on the other side of Egypt across the Red Sea, but the land filled with honey and milk. This is the land of God's Sabbath-rest. Joshua led the Israelites into the land of Canaan. In this land, they were to participate in God's Sabbath-rest. The Bible characterizes this new land as filled with material abundance, a land abundant with honey and milk. But the people of Israel could not enjoy God's Sabbath-rest in the land filled with honey and milk, the land of abundance and prosperity. Why? Because of their disobedience to God (Heb. 4:11), God intended to do excellent things for the people of Israel: He led them into the land of Canaan under the leadership of Joshua to give them God's Sabbath (rest). But they have become the example of people who could not participate in God's rest, "the example of disobedience" (Heb. 4:11).

God called us out of the world into Christ. God has the same purpose for us as he had for the people of Israel when he called them out of slavery into the land filled with honey and milk. We can enter the rest of God, resting from our own labor, as God rested from his work of creation.

The Sabbath-rest God promises in Hebrew 4 is what we can enjoy in this world, here and now.

Hebrew 4:11 Let us, therefore, make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one will fall by following their example of disobedience.

This rest is not given to us without any cost. God demands us to “make every effort to enter that rest” (Heb. 4:11).

The question is, “How can we enter God’s rest in this world, here and now?”

2. We can enter God’s Sabbath-rest through the Word of God.

Hebrews 4:12-13 For the Word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart. Nothing in all creation is hidden from God’s sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of him to whom we must give account.

It is the Word of God, not anything else in this world, that gives us rest in this wilderness-like world. The way of entering God’s rest today is to listen to the Word of God, through which we can have a rest. God reveals God’s power and nature through the Word of God, which is “living and active,” not a dead letter, because God is the living God (Heb. 4:12).

The Word of God functions like a surgical knife: It is “sharper than any double-edged sword,” so that it “penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow” (Heb. 4:12). “It judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart” (Heb. 4:12). The Word of God uncovers the truth of our life to the eyes of God and teaches us that there is nothing within us to justify ourselves and make us acceptable to God. It destroys our self-righteousness, teaching us that there is nothing to distinguish ourselves as better than others.

Our rest and happiness through the Word of God is not for our self-satisfaction but for the satisfaction of God. It is not for self-glorification but for glorifying God.

3. We can enter God’s Sabbath-rest, approaching the throne of grace in Christ, the great high priest.

Hebrews 4:16 Let us then approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

The Word of God testifies to Christ, a special blessing from him. The subject matter of the whole Scripture is Christ. It teaches us Christ the great high priest, who bears the iniquities of all of us, being wounded for our transgressions and crushed for our failures.

Because of our inability to stand in the presence of God’s judgment seat, we should “hold firmly to the faith we profess,” our faith in Christ Jesus, “a great high priest who has gone through the heavens” into the land of rest, God’s sabbath (Heb. 4:14).

Christ the high priest has a sympathetic heart to us in weakness and corruption because, like every one of us, Christ, as a human being, “has been tempted in every way,” but unlike any of us, he did not fall in temptation, but was perfect “without sin” (Heb. 4:15).

Christ was united with us in our human nature and passed through every temptation as we do. But he was without any sort of sin. The first Adam, even though he was created in perfection, committed sins, and failed to go into God's sabbath rest, and was driven out of God's sanctuary, the land of Eden. The second Adam, Christ Jesus, fully participated in human nature but did not fail to obey God, the Word of God, and became the great high priest for all human beings. If anyone holds firmly to the faith in Christ, especially his atonement as the great high priest, she or he will receive God's sabbath-rest. We are encouraged to get access to "the throne of grace with confidence" (Heb. 4:16).

God's sabbath-rest is in God's grace and mercy revealed in Christ, the great high priest. Our rest is under the shadow of the cross of Christ.

"Nobody knows the trouble I see/ nobody knows but Jesus/
Sometimes I'm up/ sometimes I'm down/ Oh, yes, Lord/ Sometimes I'm almost to the ground." (UMH 520)

HOLY COMMUNION

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Come to the table of love.

Jesus meets us here.

We gather as the beloved community,

hungry to be fed with the gifts of the Spirit, thirsting for the waters of life.

God is here and everyone is welcome.

The GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, creator of heaven and earth. You have made from one every nation and people to live on all the face of the earth. And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven we praise your name and join their unending hymn: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ.

By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection you gave birth to your Church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit. He commissioned us to be his witnesses to the ends of the earth and to make disciples of all nations, and today we join the family of God throughout the world at Christ's holy table.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us, Jesus took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

When the supper was over, Jesus took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood. By your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory and we feast at his heavenly banquet. Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, almighty Father, now and forever. Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

And now, with the confidence of children of God, let us pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, now and forever. Amen.

BREAKING THE BREAD

Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf. The bread which we break is a sharing in the body of Christ. The cup over which we give thanks is a sharing in the blood of Christ.

GIVING THE BREAD AND CUP

The body of Christ, given for you. Amen.

The blood of Christ, given for you. Amen.

Eternal God, we give you thanks for this holy mystery in which you have given yourself to us. Grant that we may go into the world in the strength of your Spirit, to give ourselves for others, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
