

The high priest and other religious leaders were very jealous, so they arrested Jesus' apostles and put them in jail.

An angel of the Lord opened the doors of the jail and brought out the apostles.

The Jewish leaders beat Jesus' apostles and told them to stop teaching about Jesus.

The apostles told people the good news that Jesus is the Messiah.

What's the Expression? | Read each statement, then draw an expression for each face to show how the apostle might feel.

What Happened Next? | Number the events from today's Bible story in the correct order from 1–8. For help, review Acts 5:12-42.

An angel of the Lord opened the doors of the jail.

The religious leaders beat Jesus' apostles and told them to stop talking about Jesus.

When Peter and John were released from jail, they went to the temple to preach about Jesus.

The apostles praised God that they were worthy to suffer for the name of Jesus.

The servants of the high priest and religious leaders discovered the apostles were no longer in jail.

Gamaliel warned the religious leaders to be careful.

Peter said, "We must obey God rather than people."

The high priests and religious leaders were jealous of the apostles for healing the people, so they put them in jail.