Matt and Emma Hegler - Japan

Our team is getting closer to finding a more permanent place to host Connect and other events. Our hope is to find a good, convenient, and safe place where kids can come even outside of event hours and enjoy playing together. We are excited at the new possibilities that this may open up so please continue to pray for this!

I (Matt) was unable to pass the driver's test on my first time taking it. It was even more difficult than I thought! Emma will be taking the test this week and we are praying that she will pass on her first try!

We are also praising the Lord because we feel that a lot of Japanese is beginning to stick and we are starting to become more conversational. This has given us a lot of motivation to push harder into learning. Because of this, Emma has taken on a new class and I have started doing more tutoring and self-study alongside our regular classes. Please pray that we can keep this momentum!

I am also hoping to restart regularly playing basketball at the local courts to connect with guys there as the weather is just now cooling down. Please pray that I will communicate well and be able to form friendships where I can show the love of Jesus.
