RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR BAPTISM SPONSORS

Being a sponsor is an official responsibility in the Church. The Church, in the Code of Canon Law – the Universal Law of the Church – has established certain requirements. This law comes directly from our Holy Father, the Pope.

The requirements are:

1. That the sponsor be a Baptized Catholic who has made First Communion and Confirmation.
2. Be practicing Roman Catholics. At a minimum, this means that they normally go to Mass on days of obligation, and confess at least once a year and go to Communion at Easter time. Needless to say, people married outside the Roman Catholic Church or who are living together without marriage cannot be sponsors.
3. Be at least 16 years old (the pastor can excuse from this requirement for a good reason).
4. Parents cannot be sponsors for their own children.
5. A child may have one sponsor of the same sex, or two sponsors, each of a different sex.

In our parish, the sponsor is asked to attend the pre-Baptismal class, unless they have attended within the last three years.

- If a sponsor is from another Roman Catholic parish, they must bring permission from their pastor, stating that they fulfill the requirements of the Canon Law and their own parish.
- If the sponsors cannot be physically present for the baptism, proxies may stand in their place. There is no requirement concerning who is the proxy.
- A Protestant or Eastern Orthodox Christian may stand as a “CHRISTIAN WITNESS ONLY”, together with a Catholic Sponsor.

These regulations show us how seriously the Roman Catholic Church views the office of sponsor.

I, _____
(Please print complete name)

I Swear to Almighty God that:

- I am a baptized member of the Catholic Church
- I am at least 16 years old
- I have made my First Holy communion and received the Sacrament of Confirmation
- I am not married outside of the Catholic Church, nor am I cohabitating (living outside of marriage with someone.)
- I normally attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation, receive the Sacrament of Penance (Confession) at least once a year, and go to Holy Communion at least once a year in the Easter Season.
- I understand and accept the responsibilities which I undertake as a sponsor for this person. I will assist his/her parents in their Christian duty, and will help this person, by example, word and action, to live as a faithful Christian in communion with, and according to, the teachings of the Holy Catholic Church.
