Mike & Missie Anscomb—YWAM, New Hampshire

Mike & Missie Anscomb have been missionaries with Youth with a Mission Upper Valley in New Hampshire since 2014. In 2020 they launched "The River House", which is a branch of YWAM UV geared toward assisting families and children currently involved in foster care and those aging out of the system. The house is being renovating to be able to create a family-centered environment to replace state run group homes for the foster care system. The vision is healthy families and a foster care system run with integrity where every child is kept safe and given proper care, and those who age out to always have a safe place to go.
