Dear Members and Friends of Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church,

Ecclesiastes 3:1, "For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven..."

I am writing to let you know that I will be transitioning from Good Shepherd (GSPC) later this month.

Jean and I have been feeling called back to the East Coast to be closer to family (including our elderly parents and our grandbaby) and we have been praying for God's direction and timing. This new season became clear to us last week upon receiving a new pastoral call.

In January I will begin as the Executive Pastor at Palm City Presbyterian Church (PCPC) in Florida. Jean and I plan to start our journey back across the country at the end of the month, and Sunday, December 21st will be our last time to share in worship with you at GSPC.

GSPC is in great hands with Lead Pastor DJ Severin, Associate Pastor of Families Janae Barker, the Elder and Deacon ministry teams, and the worship, ministry, and support staff. As my season of ministry draws to a close here, my hope and prayer is that there will be opportunities to connect as we reflect on our shared ministry, mission, and fellowship times together. Jean and I will appreciate your support and prayers as we begin a new season of ministry at PCPC.

It has been such a privilege to serve alongside you over the past 6.5 years. May God continue to pour out His blessings on you and the congregation of Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church.

Trusting Jesus with you,

Pastor Bryan
