BABY DEDICATION

INFO CLASS FOR PARENTS

At North Jax, we ask parents to attend a Baby Dedication Class before their child is dedicated, to help explain the heart behind baby dedication & why it matters. We want parents to understand that baby dedication is not about salvation for the child—salvation comes later through personal faith in Jesus Christ. Instead, this is a meaningful moment for parents to publicly commit to raising their child in a Christ-centered home, teaching them God's Word, & modeling a life of faith. The class provides clarity on what the church believes, answers questions parents may have, & ensures that this special day is both meaningful and rooted in God's design for the family.

To participate in baby dedication parents must attend the Baby Dedication class, which is taught 4 times a year. The last class for 2025 will be held November 16.
