

Table Talk

FAMILY FEATURE PART 2

Discussion questions and conversation starters based on this weekend's sermon!

1. Why do you think temptation often looks so appealing at first, just like the Turkish Delight did to Edmund?
2. If the enemy tempted you with your personal version of "Turkish Delight," what would it be?
3. What are some "sweet-looking" temptations people face today that actually lead to chains?
4. What's the funniest thing you've ever fallen for that you later realized was definitely a trap?
5. Which part of Edmund's story do you relate to most — curiosity, temptation, regret, or redemption?
6. If Aslan roared behind you every time you were about to make a bad choice, how much roaring would happen in a week?
7. What's one area of your life where you need Jesus to break chains and bring freedom?
8. What's your "Edmund moment"—that time you were convinced something good was coming... and it absolutely wasn't?
9. How can you remind yourself this week that we don't fight for victory, but from victory?
10. Which character in Narnia would you absolutely not want rescuing you?
