HEAVEN CAME DOWN PART 1

Discussion questions and conversation starters based on this weekend's sermon!

1. Which part of the Christmas story—Zechariah, Mary, or Joseph—do you relate to the most right now?
2. If an angel suddenly appeared to you like Zechariah, what's your honest first reaction—praise, scream, or sprint?
3. Why do you think fear plays such a big role in each part of the Christmas story?
4. If you had to mime your faith like Zechariah during his silent season, how would that go?
5. Can you recall a time when God broke into your situation and brought peace when you least expected it?
6. When faced with mixed opinions from others, do you respond more like Mary ("Let it be") or like someone Googling for backup?
7. What opinions (from people, culture, family, etc.) try to pull you away from what God is asking you to do?
8. If obedience had a theme song in your life, what would it be?
9. What step of faith is God inviting you to take this Christmas season?
10. What's one silly thing that steals your peace every Christmas season?
