LIVING A LIFE THAT COUNTS PART 1

Discussion questions and conversation starters based on this weekend's sermon!

1. What does it mean to you that your family is your “Jerusalem,” the first place to live out your witness?
2. If humility was a game, who in your house would win—and who would need a rematch?
3. How does humility shift the way you handle conflict in relationships?
4. If your marriage had a referee, how many fouls would be called in a week?
5. Why do you think Paul ties marriage to the picture of Christ and the church?
6. If respect could be given in “Hercules!” cheers, what chore would deserve the loudest applause?
7. What practical step can you take this week to serve your spouse, children, or family better?
8. If love languages were fast food orders, what would yours (and your spouse's) be?
9. How can single people prepare now for future relationships by practicing humility, unity, and love?
10. Who in your home is most likely to roll their eyes first during sarcasm—and how does that impact peace?
