LIVING A LIFE THAT COUNTS PART 7

Discussion questions and conversation starters based on this weekend's sermon!

1. What does “living on mission” look like in your daily life?
2. Have you ever told God “surely not” about something that later turned out to be His plan?
3. How has God ever challenged you to step outside your comfort zone to reach someone?
4. If the Holy Spirit had to send you a push notification, what would it say most often?
5. What can we learn from Peter’s willingness to go to Cornelius’ house despite cultural barriers?
6. What’s harder—inviting someone to church or inviting them over for dinner?
7. Why do relationships matter so much in sharing the gospel?
8. If God told you to share your faith with someone totally unexpected, how long would it take you to obey?
9. How do you personally recognize when God is trying to give you a new revelation or perspective?
10. Have you ever tried to argue with God like Peter did—and how did that work out?
