PEACE THAT HITS DIFFERENT | PART 6

Discussion questions and conversation starters based on this weekend's sermon!

1. What does it mean to you to say, "Speak, Lord, for Your servant is listening"?
2. What's the most uncomfortable "yes" you've ever said—whether to God, a boss, or even dinner plans?
3. Can you think of a time when saying "yes" to God brought unexpected conflict in your life?
4. If your comfort zone was a piece of furniture, what would it be—a recliner, a hammock, or a beanbag?
5. How do you personally struggle with giving up control when God calls you to obey?
6. Have you ever said "yes" and instantly thought, "What did I just get myself into?"
7. How does Esther's courage inspire you in facing challenges or risks in your own faith?
8. Have you ever tried to avoid conflict by staying silent, only to realize silence made things worse?
9. Where have you seen God's presence sustain you when obedience felt costly?
10. What's your go-to "comfort food," and how does it compare to the spiritual comforts we cling to?
