WEEK 2

AWARE to see a ONE | Additional Questions

- Based on the John 16 reading:
  - When you think about reaching out to others, what do you think it means that the Spirit of Truth will guide you into all truth?
  - How does this promise ease the pressure in discovering a ONE and in not having to manufacture opportunities with your ONE?
- Share one story—personal or observed—where paying attention turned an everyday moment into an encounter with God.
- As you are prompted to recognize people in your relational reach zone through the A-W-A-R-E acronym, how might that be God’s invitation to join Him in His work? Who in your relational reach zone shares a “wavelength” (interest, life stage) with you? How might that be God’s invitation?
- What emotions come up when you imagine God using you to reach that person?
- When you envision people you know in the relational reach zone graphic, can you see God working in their lives, even if they don’t yet know Him? If so, how can you imagine God at work in their lives?
- What barriers (fear, assumptions, past hurt) keep you from noticing the ONEs around you? How can the group pray for you?
- Where have you sensed a Holy Spirit nudge recently —big or small?
- What practical cue could remind you to pray “Lord, make me AWARE” throughout the day (phone wallpaper, steering-wheel dot, etc.)?
