Happy Father's Day

Summertime ushers in several celebrations. Graduates celebrate; it is a time for weddings and anniversaries, family reunions, Juneteenth, and Father's Day observed. Don't hibernate; get outdoors and travel. Remember your father this month by spending time with him this summer. Give him a call, visit him, take him to lunch, send him a card, and tell him how much you love him and how he positively impacted your life. "The power of a dad in a child's life is unmatched," (Justin Ricklefs). Fathers provide a powerful influence as protectors, providers, and priests. Fathers, I admonish you to continue to be there. Christian author, Max Lucado, said of his dad, "My father didn't do anything unusual. He only did what dads are supposed to do—be there." Our presence means so much to our children's lives. "One father is more than a hundred schoolmasters" (George Herbert). If your father has passed or has never been a part of your life, may our heavenly Father comfort and strengthen you. —"Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him." Psalm 103:13.

ADOPT A SENIOR

Charity Begins at Home

Our seniors are feeling a bit forgotten being away over two years. Let us re-engage them, like pen pals – send a note, call or text, send a gift, help with an errand, or arrange a meet-up. Let us remind them that we care about and miss them too.

If you are interested in getting to know a senior a little better or just helping one out, let us know at info@shilohsda.org and we will match you up with a senior. It does not take much time; this is only a three-month commitment, but it will make all the difference in the world to you both. Also, if there is a senior you have been connecting with, please let us know.

A GRADUATION TRIBUTE

Here at last, here at last,
That's right everyone, graduation has come at last,
No more early rises, or up late nights studying for class,
All reports are turned in and exams complete,
Now for all that hard work, this reward you've reaped.

The village, the prayers, don't forget mom's treats,
Dad endlessly checking to ensure you have all you need,
A world of effort to get you here this day,
Now exhale, smile, and sing,
"You brought me a mighty long way",

"Thank you, Jesus,"
He hasn't brought you this far to leave you,"
Yes, that right, God has been your strength and refuge,
So, after the ceremonies, parties, congratulatory,
and the spotlights are gone,

He is still here, as you pursue along,
For tomorrow will bring new aspirations,
New mountains to move, as you embrace your new workstation,
Just remember this, if no other,
"In all these things we are more than conquerors" (Romans 8:37)
