Pastor Harold Thomas III

From the Pastor's Desk

"O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good; for his mercy endureth forever." 1 Chron 16:34

As Thanksgiving approaches, let us take a moment to reflect on the many blessings in our lives. It's easy to get caught up in the daily chaos and miss the good and miraculous things happening around us. Let's make it a habit to find the good in our lives by training our hearts and minds to be grateful.

This season, I challenge you to make Thanksgiving a part of your daily routine. Take time every day to thank God for all the good in your life. Keep a journal of praise and thanksgiving. Don't ask for anything; thank Him for everything- and be specific. Thank Him for waking you up, keeping you safe, watching over your children, the food you eat, safe travels, and all the other provisions He provides.

Furthermore, let's make Thanksgiving a practice in our marriages and homes. Think of one thing you appreciate about your spouse or children, celebrate the good qualities in their lives, and tell them how much you appreciate and love them. This will inspire and encourage them and lift your heart as well. May we all have a grateful heart and see our blessings, counting them individually.

"Every deliverance, every blessing, that God in the past has granted to His people, should be kept fresh in memory's hall as a sure pledge of further and richer, increasing blessings that He will bestow. There is no limit to the blessings that it is our privilege to receive." E. G. White, Our High Calling, p. 196.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Celebrating Shiloh's
INDIGENOUS PEOPLES

We took the month of October to emphasize Indigenous People. Family spotlights were shared by Richard & Shari Morris and Elise Hines. We heard personal experiences and corrected American history that spoke about the many injustices, but also the resilience and pride of Indigenous Peoples' roots.

Special thanks to our October Indigenous Peoples' participants.
