

Meet Our Compassionate and Professional Biblical Counselors

The relationship between a counselor and a counselee is important. Each of our counselors takes their role of walking alongside you in your journey very seriously. We recognize the importance that every “counselee” feels safe and comfortable (emphasis on “safe”). Each counselor’s objective is to equip the counselee with practical tools that encourage emotional healing, personal growth, spiritual transformation and restoring hope for their future.

Kimberly Davidson, MA, BCBC

Kimberly is the administrator of Hope Counseling and leads a team of biblical counseling professionals and trained peer counselors who provide hope and help to the church and community.

Kimberly is a board-certified biblical counselor. She received her Masters degree in pastoral care and counseling from Western Seminary, Portland, Oregon; a BS degree in health sciences from the University of Iowa. Kimberly has been in the counseling ministry since 2003. She created Olive Branch Outreach, an interactive website, that for 15-years, brought hope and restoration to those struggling with body image, abuse, and food addiction. She led an abuse recovery program at a federal women’s prison for 7-years.

Kimberly specializes in counseling women and couples.

Michael Esposito, Associate and Men’s Ministry Counselor

Drawing upon nearly three decades of experience as an ordained minister, Pastor Michael A. Esposito is a Christian Life Coach, Bible teacher, and men’s ministry counselor. He’s dedicated his life to helping others, guiding them to fruitful lives grounded in faith, financial stability, and strong personal relationships. He is the founder and CEO of Regional Reclaim Ministries.

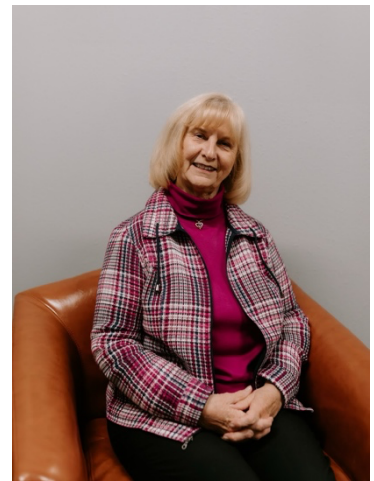

Pastor Michael specializes in counseling adult and adolescent men and couples.

Doris Aasland, PNP, PNHNP

Doris is a retired pediatric and psychiatric nurse practitioner. Today she is using her gifts, past years’ experience and Bible knowledge as a biblical counselor and Bible teacher. Doris received a BSN degree from OHSU (Oregon Health Science University); a Pediatric Nurse Practitioners degree and Psychiatric Mental Health Nurse Practitioner Master’s degree from OHSU. She worked for the Multnomah Health Department, Juvenile Detention Home, Clackamas County Mental Health Clinic and jail, and Oregon City High School Health Clinic. She was in private practice for 20-years.

Doris specializes in counseling individuals (women and men), parents, adolescents, and couples.

Robin Fleming, MA

Robin is a retired therapist and has chosen to use her gifts, past years' experience and Bible knowledge as a biblical counselor. She received her bachelor's degree in education from Northwest Nazarene College in 1986 and her master's degree in counseling from Grand Canyon University in 2018. Presently she volunteers as intake specialist and a class facilitator for Love INC of Clackamas County, a non-profit that helps to mobilize local churches to meet needs in their communities in relational ways that point to Jesus and demonstrate His love and presence.

Robin specializes in counseling women, adolescents, and couples.
