Resurrection Rolls

A SWEET TREAT AND AN OBJECT LESSON FROM LIL LUNA! ENJOY THE SURPRISE ON YOUR KIDS' FACES WHEN THE ROLL THEY HAD HID A MARSHMALLOW IN IS empty AFTER IT IS BAKED!

What you'll need

- 1 (10-ounce) can refrigerated crescent dinner rolls
- 8 large marshmallows
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cup butter, melted
- 2 teaspoons cinnamon
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar

What to say

- As you roll the marshmallow in the cinnamon sugar mixture and wrap the dough around it, discuss how Jesus' friends would have prepared his body with spices and wrapped him in linens.
- While the rolls are baking, talk about how Jesus' friends waited not knowing what would happen, what must that have been like?
- When they open their roll, and the marshmallow is gone, remind them of the truth and good news of the empty tomb!

What to do

1. Preheat the oven to 350°F. Line a baking sheet with a parchment or silicone liner.
2. Open the crescent roll package and separate the rolls into eight triangles.
3. In a small bowl, whisk together the cinnamon and sugar.
4. Dip each of the marshmallows in the melted butter, then roll in the cinnamon sugar mixture.
5. Place a marshmallow in the middle of each dough triangle, then roll the dough tightly around the marshmallow, pinching to close all of the seams.
6. Place the rolls on the prepared baking sheet. Bake for 10-14 minutes, or until golden brown.

On the first day of the week, very early in the _____ the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the _____ rolled away from the tomb, but when they entered, they did not find the _____ of the Lord Jesus. While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the _____ among the dead? He is not here; he has _____! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: 'The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the _____ day be raised again.'" Then they remembered his words. When they came back from the tomb, they told all these things to the eleven disciples and to all the others. It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them who told this to the apostles. But they did not _____ the women, because their words seemed like nonsense. Peter, however, got up and _____ to the tomb. Bending over, he saw the strips of _____ lying by themselves, and he went away, wondering to himself what had happened. Later, Jesus appeared to the disciples and opened their mind to understand the scriptures. And He said, "Yes, it was written long ago that the Messiah would suffer and die and rise from the dead on the third day."
