

OUTLINE

BIG IDEA

What you listen to will shape you.

1. Know who is teaching you.

Marks of True Teaching:

- Love over fear
- Righteousness over sin
- Humility over pride
- Mercy over achievement
- Godly wealth over earthly wealth
- Character before competency

2. Repent of false teaching.

3. Hold fast, waiting for Jesus.

NOTES

REVIEW

READ Revelation 2:18-29

OBSERVE

1. What's going well at the church in Thyatira? (19) What is going wrong? (20)
2. Why are things going wrong at the church in Thyatira? (20)
3. What is Jesus going to do about the problems in the church? (21-23) What are the church members supposed to do? (24-25)

INTERPRET

1. What desires can lead to believers following false teachers?
2. How does Jesus satisfy the desires that can lead us astray?

ASSESS

1. What 1-2 voices are most prominent in your life?
2. Think back to the marks of true teaching. Are the most prominent voices in your life producing the marks of true teaching?
3. How do you guard against false teaching in your life? Does the way you guard change if that voice is a friend? Family member? Co-worker?
4. When and how do you listen to the voice of Jesus? How is your time with Jesus impacting you?
5. Consider how the church in Thyatira was growing: love, faith, service and patient endurance. (19) In which of these are you growing? In which do you need to grow?

HOW DID YOUR PLAN GO?

APPLY

1. What guardrails can you install in your life to make sure you are exercising discernment about the voices that influence you?
2. What voices do you need to cut out of your life? What steps will you take to cut them out?
3. How can you elevate Jesus's voice in your life this week?
4. What can you do this week to grow in love, faith, service or patient endurance?
5. Are there any other steps of obedience God is calling you to from the sermon?
