Jesus uses God's law like a lightning bolt.

Luke 18:18-30

_____ -and- _____ preaching is when vivid depictions of God's judgment are used to warn sinners.

In today's verses, Jesus uses the same material as fire-and-brimstone preachers. He uses God's _____.

1. Why we need it to strike.

What do we learn about the man Jesus has this conversation with?

What does his question for Jesus prove about him?

We need God's law to incinerate every ounce of _____ that might take up space in our hearts.

2. Where we need it to strike.

What was taking up the most space in this man's heart?

What makes money such a powerful source of pride?

What can easily be other sources of pride for us?

3. What happens after it strikes.

How did the man respond to Jesus' words?

What question did Jesus' words lead the disciples to ask?

Jesus' answer: What is _____ with man is _____ with God.

For me to remember:

We need the lightning bolt of the law. But the sound of the gospel is the thunder God wants ringing in our ears.
