

Pastor's Peace

Summertime

Heading into summer there are a lot of changes. Sometimes the change can be hectic, other times it can be more leisurely. Families are taking vacations and trips. For some grandparents, it's the start of Nana or Grandpa's daycare for the summer.

I hope your summer, whether hectic or leisurely, will be a time for reconnection. I hope that you'll be able to take time to reconnect with aunts, uncles, brothers, sisters, or whoever is important in your life. But most importantly, take time to breathe. Sit out on the porch and watch the stars. Say a prayer that you've not said in a long time. Take a morning or an evening to read a story in the Bible that you have forgotten about and learn a little more. Time is our most important resource. It seems that the summer may be when we have the most of it and it is also the most fleeting. So take time take time for yourself. Take time to reconnect with God and your church. I hope you have a great summer.

Blessings and peace, Jed
