

Missions Spotlight

VC Rehabam is a missionary in Andhra, India. He travels to local villages teaching about Jesus, distributing food to the hungry and medicine to the sick. He conducts preacher trainings and provides song books and Bibles so that churches can be established in these areas. He works with his supporters to raise funding so that small church buildings can be built in these villages.

