“For the sake of Christ, then, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities. For when I am weak, then I am strong.”

2 Cor. 12:10 ESV

When our identity is parked in our giftedness, our identity can turn towards our gifts and keep us from discovering our true identity.

“Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has arisen no one greater than John the Baptist. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.”

Matt. 11:11 ESV

“As Jesus passed on from there, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth, and he said to him, “Follow me.” And he rose and followed him.”

(Matt. 9:9 ESV).

Imagine being able to see what the Father is doing all around you everyday and doing it with Him

“This resurrection life you received from God is not a timid, grave-tending life. It’s adventurously expectant, greeting God with a childlike ‘What’s next, Papa?’”

Rom. 8:15 The Message

“Until now you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full. “I have said these things to you in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech but will tell you plainly about the Father.

John 16:24-27 ESV

In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf; for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God.”

John 16:26-27 ESV

When the core of our identity is in being a son or daughter and being loved by the Father the way Jesus was, our eyes will be open to see what the Father is doing.

“Jesus said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of his own accord, but only what he sees the Father doing. For whatever the Father does, that the Son does likewise.”

(John 5:19)

“For the Father loves the Son and shows him all that he himself is doing. And greater works than these will he show him, so that you may marvel.” (John 5:20 ESV)

My Prayer changed from, anoint me to do this to:
Father, show me what you are doing

Being fathered by God will:
Change the way you see yourself.

Connect you to his love and presence.

Open your eyes to see what the Father is doing around you.

Jesus asked questions of His disciples instead of just giving them answers, I wondered if that's how the Father spoke to Him?

In the Gospels, Jesus asks 307 questions. He is asked 183 of which he only answers 3. Asking questions was central for Jesus learning to see and hear what the Father is doing

Could it be that when Jesus was a young boy, the Father asked Him questions, drawing Him to scripture, so that He could fully discover who He was?

Father show me what you are doing:
With my wife?
With my Kids?

“Now when all the people were baptized, and when Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, the heavens were opened and the Holy Spirit descended on him in bodily form, like a dove;

and a voice came from heaven,
“You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.” (Luke 3:21–22 ESV)

Jesus prayed, Two prayers

COME HOLY SPIRIT AND FILL ME
WITH YOUR POWER

Jesus prayed, Two prayers

FATHER, REVEAL YOUR LOVE TO ME AS YOUR SON

“And along with the Spirit, a voice: “This is my Son, chosen and marked by my love, delight of my life.” (Matt. 3:17
