HP YOUTH

UPDATE:

We had a great time visiting the residents at the Country Club of Woodland Hills! We painted pumpkins, listened to spooky music, and enjoyed some pumpkin muffins. We'll be visiting them again on December 10 to do a Christmas craft.

Our Fall break camping trip was a blast! We fished, hiked, star-gazed, and enjoyed s'mores. So thankful to spend time with God's people in His beautiful creation.

STUDYING:

Our students have enjoyed our study in Esther, learning about how God is working, even when we can't see Him.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

Nov 19 – Friendsgiving

Dec 10 – Christmas Craft with residents at Country Club of Woodland Hills

Dec 17 – Christmas Party at the Jennings' House

Phase I of our new Mission Wall is 99% complete. Come visit the Matt Crosser Mission Wall in the downstairs common area! The Mission Wall is dedicated to Matt Crosser, whose service to the mission field in Italy and as an HPCC staff member is lovingly remembered one year after his death. Matt designed the Mission Wall a few weeks before he died. Our goal is to stay true not only to his design, but to point people to Jesus, as Matt faithfully sought to do in life.

OUR DEEPEST SYMPATHY

Our deepest sympathy is extended to the Grufik family in the loss of Kathy's mother, Dorothy Clark Larkin, and stepfather, Earl Larkin. Earl passed away on September 17, and Dorothy died on October 4. A service is planned for November 10. Be in prayer for Kathy and her family as they grieve this great loss.

FALL FUN FEST

GRIEF SHARE

Are You An Encourager?

It is interesting that in the conclusion of the Apostle Paul's teaching about death and grief, he ends with, "Therefore, encourage one another with these words." (1 Thessalonians 4:18) It is a reminder that those who are believers in Jesus can face great sorrows and still find encouragement at the same time. One of Paul's traveling companions on his missionary journeys was a man named Joseph, a Levite from Cyprus, whom the apostles called, Barnabas (which means 'son of encouragement.') (See Acts 4:36.)

Christians offer the world a resource of encouragement that cannot be found elsewhere in the world. In 2 Corinthians 2:14-15, we read, "But thanks be to God, who always leads us as captives in Christ's triumphal procession and uses us to spread the aroma of the knowledge of him everywhere. For we are to God the pleasing aroma of Christ among those who are being saved and those who are perishing."

To whom can you give encouragement and carry the "pleasing aroma of Christ?" Who in your circle of friends needs the encouragement that can only be found in the grace of God? Who among your friends are this source of encouragement to you?

Surviving the Holidays

Please mark your calendar for Wednesday evening, November 12, for our next "Surviving the Holidays" workshop. If you or a friend is dealing with grief from the loss of a loved one, the approaching holidays may be a source of dread or sadness. This workshop will help you prepare, survive, and thrive during this holiday season. The group meets in Room 114, beginning at 6:30pm.

You can sign up by logging on to www.griefshare.org and finding Highland Park's page to register for the workshop. There is no cost for this workshop, and helpful materials will be provided. If you have more questions, please call the Church office or email Dave Dunson at davidd@hptulsa.com.
