Celebrating 198 Years of Ministry

January 2026

Dear Church Family,

The Websters have been so blessed this year by the number of Christmas cards we received. Thank you. Each year, Jonathan and I take these cards and pray for the families who sent them.

Enclosed in this edition of "The Messenger," you will find a guide to help us read or reread God's story from Genesis to Revelation. I have enclosed the January readings, and additionally a guide to encourage a faithful prayer life. Throughout the year, I will share other resources helpful for our faith formation.

We don't know what the new year will bring but let us trust in the Lord that no matter what it brings, our Lord Jesus Christ will be right there to catch us on days that are troubling. I trust that our joys will outweigh our woes and I trust that this beloved community of ours will be praying and caring.

The year will be busy. The adage "many hands make light work" can make our sacred work easier. It means sharing tasks so that one person is not trying to do it alone.

As I look back on this year, I am grateful. The picture of our choir and praise group (and spouse) at our annual Christmas meal at Dot's speaks volumes. We are a gifted and servant church. I encourage us all to take more pictures so we can see what God is doing in all of us.

As I think of the coming year, I am anxious to see Jonmichael's performance this spring in the Godspell Musical in Richmond, more on this in the Spring, excited to officiate Caroline and Tyler's wedding, looking forward to Lent, Easter, and yes, Advent and Christmas all over again. I am also excited, over the moon, for what Christ has in store for all of us. Think of the possibilities as we remain open and eager to receive HIS blessings.

In Hope,
Rev. Webster
