For All the Saints

All: 1 For all the saints who from their labors rest,
Men: 2 Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
Choir: 3 Oh, may Thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
All: 4 Oh, blest communion, fellowship divine!
Women: 5 And when the fight is fierce, the warfare long,
Choir: 6 The golden evening brightens in the west;
All: 7 But, lo, there breaks a yet more glorious day: The

Thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old And
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine; Yet Steals on the ear the distant triumph song, And Soon, soon to faithful warriors cometh rest;
saints triumphant rise in bright array; The gates of pearl streams in the countless host, name, O Jesus, be forever blest.

Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.
win with them the victor's crown of gold!
all are one in Thee, for all are Thine.
hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.
Sweet is the calm of paradise the blest.
King of Glory passes on His way.

For you are my rock and my | fortress;*

and for your name's sake you lead me and | guide me.

Into your hand I commit my | spirit;*

you have redeemed me, O Lord, | faithful God.

is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

These are the ones coming out of the great tribu- | lation.*

COMMEMORATION OF THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

P “I heard a voice of heaven saying, Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth. Blessed indeed says the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them.”

With great joy and thanksgiving we recall all those who have now gone on to glory who participated in and contributed to the life of this congregation. Many have already gone before us with the sign of faith. They live in our loving memories, even as they now live with the Lord in the mansions of heaven. They were created by God to offer Him praise and thanksgiving forever, and He gave them new life through His Son in Holy Baptism, and nourished them in the company of His people at His Holy Table, and in His mercy has summoned them to His nearer presence so that they may continue in joyful service of Him forever.

In confident expectation of the resurrection to life and eager anticipation of the great day of reunion, let us remember before the Lord, all of our departed kin and friends, especially, on this great Feast of All Saints, those whom you have called to heavenly rest since last we celebrated this festival day.

- P Almighty and everlasting God, before whom stand the spirits of the living and the dead, for all who have witnessed a good confession for Your glory and the welfare of the world.
- C We praise You, O God, and bless Your Name.
- P For the martyrs of our holy faith, for the faithful witnesses to Christ of whom the world was not worthy; and for all who have resisted falsehood and wrong unto suffering or death.
- C We praise You, O God, and bless Your Name.
- P For all who have labored and suffered for freedom, good government, just laws, and the sanctity of the home; and for all who have given their lives for their country.
- C We praise You, O God, and bless Your Name.
- P For all who have labored on behalf of others and have sought to lighten the dark places of the earth; for all who have labored to push back the horizons of knowledge that all men might come to better understand the beauty and order of that which the Lord God has made.
- C We praise You, O God, and bless Your Name.
- P For those who have been tender and true, working selflessly on behalf of others in humble and difficult circumstances, serving faithfully where you have placed them to embody and express the love of Jesus.
- C We praise You, O God, and bless Your Name.
- P For the dear friends and loved ones who live now with You in heaven; whose faces we see no more but whose love is with us forever.
- C We praise You, O God, and bless Your Name.
- P For the teachers and companions of our childhood and youth, for their dedication and their willingness to work long hours with little material reward for the cause of Christ and His Gospel; and, for the love that they have shared and the caring they have shown.
- C We praise You, O God, and bless Your Name.
- P For faithful pastors who proclaim the Word of God; for their steadfast commitment to the historic faith of our church and for their resolve that the Word of God might be rightly proclaimed among us from the pulpit and in the classroom, in the hospital room and at the deathbed.
- C We praise You, O God, and bless Your Name.
- P For loving fathers and mothers who nurtured us; for leaders who have given of their time, energy, and talent to direct the life of our church, and for the members of our household of faith who worship You now in heaven. We acknowledge with deep gratitude that Your love at work in them has helped to make this congregation what it is today.
- C We praise You, O God, and bless Your Name.
- P For the grace that was given to all of them and for the trust and the hope in which they lived and died.
- C We praise You, O God, and bless Your Name.
- P That we may hold them in remembrance always, that the holiness of their wisdom and the fruitfulness of their goodness may rest upon our earthly days, and that we may prepare ourselves to follow them in their upward way.
- C We beseech You to hear us, O God.

- P That we may always recognize by faith that this painful separation is only for a time and may ever think of them as with You, confident that where they are we will one day be also.
- C We beseech You to hear us, O God.
- P On this great Feast of All Saints we, who still fight the good fight of faith on earth, join with the faithful and the saintly in heaven, with our beloved who dwell in Your presence and peace, with the redeemed of all the ages, and with the glorious host of angels and archangels in giving:
- C Thanksgiving, glory, honor, and power unto You, O Lord our God. Amen.

Cantate Domino canticum novum. Cantate Domino omnis terra, Sing to the Lord all the earth! Sing to the Lord all the earth! O, sing! Cantate Domino.

FIRST LESSON

Revelation 7:9–17

[9] After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, [10] and crying out with a loud voice, “Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!” [11] And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, [12] saying, “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

[13] Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, clothed in white robes, and from where have they come?” [14] I said to him, “Sir, you know.” And he said to me, “These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the

The vision of St. John reveals the wondrous joy of the saints in heaven. The white robes which they wear represent the forgiveness which is God's gift to every believer. Their song of praise joyfully acknowledges that their presence in heaven is a gift of God's grace through faith in Jesus. He alone is the Lamb of God who has offered His life as the all-atoning sacrifice for the sins of the world. Our song of praise and thanksgiving will resound through heaven forever.

Lamb. [15] “Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple; and he who sits on the throne will shelter them with his presence. [16] They shall hunger no more, neither thirst anymore; the sun shall not strike them, nor any scorching heat. [17] For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of living water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

EPISTLE LESSON

1 John 3:1–3

[1] See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. [2] Beloved, we are God’s children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. [3] And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

The love of God has restored us to the family of our Creator. The harmony with Him for which we were fashioned in the beginning compelled our heavenly Father to give up His own Son, so that we might be cleansed of sin’s guilt and savor the richness of His love. That which is ours today is only a foretaste of the perfect everlasting love which we will enjoy with Him in heaven.

GOSPEL LESSON

St. Matthew 5:1–12

[1] Seeing the crowds, [Jesus] went up on the mountain, and when he sat down, his disciples came to him. [2] And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying: [3] “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. [4] “Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. [5] “Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth. [6] “Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied. [7] “Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy. [8] “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. [9] “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God. [10] “Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. [11] “Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. [12] Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.”

The beatitudes speak God’s blessing, and hold up the difficulties God’s people must experience. The poor in spirit, the mourners, the meek, those who hunger for what is right – all these know the difficulties of living in a world that has much different standards. But God does not forsake them. In Christ he gives them rest. This prospect is a source of strength and joy; we too can join the saints in praising God.

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to You, O Christ.

A Rejoicing

Carillon Ringers

This piece, "A Rejoicing," expresses both the communal joy we will share in heaven with all those that have gone before us as well as allowing for that intimate time we will spend with our Lord. The piece opens with a fast, energetic section. Bells from all octaves share in ringing the praises around the throne of God with those arrayed in white.

The middle section takes a stark turn. Chimes are used instead of bells and the tempo becomes less fast. In this section, the composer strives to achieve that personal time we have with our Lord. It is more contemplating in nature.

The piece finishes with the flourish that it started with. All of heaven joins together in the praise of God. We await this event in our lives as it will truly be "A Rejoicing!"

P What is the Third Article of the Apostles' Creed?

C I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

P What does this mean?

C I believe that I cannot by my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ, my Lord, or come to Him; but the Holy Spirit has called me by the Gospel, enlightened me with His gifts, sanctified and kept me in the true faith. In the same way He calls, gathers, enlightens, and sanctifies the whole Christian church on earth, and keeps it with Jesus Christ in the one true faith. In this Christian church he daily and richly forgives all my sins and the sins of all believers. On the Last Day He will raise me and all the dead, and give eternal life to me and all believers in Christ. This is most certainly true.

Welcome!

Volume LXXVIII

November 2, 2025

Number 44

Enter reverently, meditate quietly, worship sincerely, serve Christ faithfully.

It is our heartfelt prayer that all who worship here this day may encounter the love of our Savior. According to His promise, He is here today reaching out to us in love through Word and Sacrament. If you are seeking a church home we hope that you have found it here so that we may rejoice in serving the Lord together. If we can be of service to you or your family in any way please do not hesitate to ask.

LIFE THOUGHTS / All Saints – If neither nation nor tribe nor people nor language disqualifies from the heavenly assembly (Revelation 7:9), why would age, appearance, or ability? And if the Lord our God doesn't let them exclude from the life to come, why should we allow them to leave anyone out of this one? And if abortion and assisted suicide have no place in paradise, how could we promote or permit them in the present? Prayer: Gracious Savior, let us honor with You the preciousness of every human person because of Your grace, forgiveness, and free salvation. Amen.

ATTENDANCE CARDS – MEMBERS (yellow) & VISITORS (blue), remember to fill out an attendance card listing all in attendance for your family. Please note any changes, otherwise you do not have to fill in the address information each week. It is appreciated if first-time visitors would include their address and phone number. Email and work numbers are helpful for inner-office needs. By filling out a card, your attendance and communing is recorded, and your comments are addressed. It is not necessary to indicate common or individual cup. Place cards in the offering plate or give to an usher on your way out. Thanks!

- The Cry-Room and the four row spans directly in front of it are reserved for parents with small children. Thank you.
- Hearing devices are available from the ushers if you need this assistance.

HOLY COMMUNION will be celebrated next on Sunday, November 9, at 9:30 a.m. “Let a man examine himself before he eats of the bread and drinks of the cup.” 1 Corinthians 11:28

The Word of God teaches that the bread and wine of the Sacrament are the true Body and Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. This precious gift of God's grace is to be received in a sense of reverent awe after careful self-examination. The Bible defines that self-examination as a personal recognition of the real presence of Christ's Body and Blood in the Sacrament, and a repentant acknowledgment of my own sinfulness recognizing my absolute dependence upon Christ as the only source of forgiveness for my sin. Scripture further instructs that our participation in Christ's Body and Blood together is the most profound and powerful way for Christians to acknowledge their unity in the faith. That is to say, when we share in the Body and Blood of Jesus at this altar we are thereby indicating our common commitment to all of the doctrines of God's Word as they are taught in this congregation. Because of these Biblical convictions, we respectfully request that visitors, who wish to join us in receiving the Body and Blood of Christ and thereby identify with our confession of Bible truth, speak with one of our pastors before attending the Lord's Supper.

Lutheran Confessions: Our Lutheran Confessions were developed out of a genuine concern with false teachings obscuring the glory and merit of our Savior. These unconditional affirmations are as understandable and poignant today as when they were written. Learn their history and development, as well as their relevance in the daily life of a Christian. Through discussion, you will see how others are asking the same questions and how Scripture offers solid, reliable answers. (James Kriegel, C101)

Women's Bible Study – Altogether Beautiful: A Study of the Song of Songs, by Heidi Goehmann (published by Concordia Publishing House). Walking through this study, you will learn how beautiful God sees you, but more important, you'll learn to ground your identity in the one who makes you beautiful—Jesus Christ. (Sarah Baughman, Family Room, Church)

Applying Scripture to Current Events: This class for young adults will focus on today's headlines and current events and discuss these topics in light of scripture and how the verses covered each week apply to everyday life. (Adam White, C106)

The Church Militant: God's Work in History: Picking up from the history of the early Church, we continue the history of how God preserved His Word within the medieval Church and brought about the Reformation in the 16th century. Combining history and theology, we will explore the connections of the Church past and present. (Karl Baughman, Cafeteria)

Choose from these Classes:

Pastor White: “Apocrypha The Hidden Books” – 400 years passed between Malachi at the end of the Old Testament and Matthew at the beginning of the New Testament. During these long centuries hundreds of books were written within Judaism which claimed to come from God. Filled with fascinating history and often bizarre theology they remain a fascinating part of the heritage of Judaism and Christianity. This introductory study will help you find the “Hidden Books” of the Apocrypha!

Jeff Armstrong: Comparative Religions – Find out what our fellow Christian brothers and sisters believe. Where are we united and where do we differ?

Jackie Lowery: Crochet 101 – Want to learn how to crochet or brush up on what you learned? We are going to start with the basics and build on that foundation to learn how to crochet independently. We will discover:

- The basics of different types of yarn and tools to use
- How to do basic stitches
- The “anatomy” of crochet stitches
- How to read crochet patterns and diagrams

Tools and yarn provided - you just need yourself! Come learn and support others that want to learn!

From the Principal’s Desk – Unpacking Classical Learning – Join Principal Thaelke for a behind-the-scenes look at the heart of learning at Our Savior Lutheran School. In this engaging series, you’ll explore the why behind what we teach—uncovering the purpose, philosophy, and power of a Classical Lutheran education. Whether you’re new to classical education or simply curious about what sets Our Savior apart, this series offers a clear, thoughtful, and inspiring look into the curriculum and culture that define our school. Topics will include:

1. From Calling to Classroom: The Heart of Classical Lutheran Education & the Art of Growing Great Teachers
2. Lingua Latina: Unlocking Minds, One Word at a Time
3. From Counting to Conquering: The Path of Mastery Math
4. Not One-Size-Fits-All: Assessing to Support Every Mind
5. Forming Bodies and Minds: The Joy of Play, the Gift of Limits

Childcare is provided. If you have any questions, please contact Pastor Cholak: scholak@osl.cc.
