Voice

I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and
I lay down my life for the sheep.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Lord places the solitary in families. The Lord God places us in a congregation of believers in Christ. He calls us by the Gospel at the work of the Holy Spirit. We know that these “means of grace” are the avenues by which God creates faith, nourishes it, strengthens it, and guards it. He calls his Word your (rightly fit for your hand) sword. It makes sense that we should know everything about this sword. We should be comfortable using it. In other words, we should know the Holy Scriptures inside and out. So as the new year unfolds and our new year’s resolutions begin to die, I encourage you all to pick up the study of the Bible anew. But, also, encourage one another in this study and reading of the Word of God.

This can take several forms and shapes. It is a great blessing that we all have copies of the Bible and can read them at our leisure in our homes or work or anywhere. We have phones and tablets with Bible apps. We can search our Bibles and find certain verses faster than any generation that came before us. Just recently, the church office sent out a “Read the Bible in a Year” packet to every member household. I would encourage you to pick up a daily reading plan and read the Bible for yourself. Either to be read as family in the living room or around the dinner table, or to be read individually by each member of the family. You might choose to use the packet sent to you, or another reading plan. If you would like a suggestion, please reach out to me.

Reading the Bible is indeed beneficial to the Christian faith. Studying the Bible with other Christians is also important. We have many opportunities to study the Bible as a Christian congregation. We have Bible studies that meet on Sunday before church and after, Bible studies that meet throughout the week, and even one Bible study that meets on Zoom. Pick a Bible study and encourage the members of your family to do the same. See the bulletin or the monthly calendar for the full list of all the Bible study offerings at Our Savior. (If any of you would be interested in a midweek meeting as a small group to study the Word, please reach out to me.)

The Holy Spirit always brings the Word with him. He brings Jesus everywhere he goes. The Holy Spirit brings Jesus to you and me. I encourage you to a lively study of that Lord and Savior with the brothers and sisters in Christ that God has placed you with at Our Savior. If you have any questions about Bible reading or Bible study, please reach out to me or Pastor White. We would be glad to help! God’s richest blessings upon your studies.

Pastor Cholak

Dear Our Savior Lutheran Church,

O God, we have heard with our ears, our fathers have told, what deeds you performed in their days, in the days of old: you with your own hand drove out the nations, but them you planted; you afflicted the peoples, but them you set free; for not by their own sword did they win the land, nor did their own arm save them, but your right hand and your arm, and the light of your face, for you delighted in them. Psalm 44:1-3

Our 2nd semester at school is off to a great start! Our JV Girls' Basketball team won the tournament we hosted. Cheering them on was so much fun, and the girls played their hearts out.

We also had a much-needed day off after MLK Day when the weather was icy and cold. This Monday was an excellent opportunity for everyone to relax and recharge after our tournament, and we are thankful everyone stayed safe and warm, and the school did not experience any issues with the extreme temperatures—Thanks be to God!

We celebrated National Lutheran Schools Week with many fun activities, including Chapel Family Bible Studies on our theme verse, John 15:1-5. Many participated in the dress-up days of crazy socks, hats, and headbands because we are “Crazy for OSL.” We wore Christian shirts to show we are connected to the Church, too. We collected items and prepared lunch bags for needy school children in our community, competed in Bible Bowls, and had House relay competitions on our Sports Courts. We hope you were able to obtain a prayer list. Please continue to pray for our OSL scholars, teachers, and staff members throughout the year. Please pray for God's provision and grace as we serve our young scholars.

In February, we look forward to a special Logic School Night to share with our families what is upcoming for grades 6-8 as parents and scholars have an opportunity to hear from our teachers, learn about the curriculum we teach, and hear about the fun activities they will now be able to participate in. We are excited to celebrate Spirit Week again with dress-up days, a pep rally, and the State basketball tournament. We will also be celebrating Valentine's Day with parties for grades Preschool-4. The kids will make cards and crafts, play games, and eat yummy treats. We will also have a special Ash Wednesday Chapel on February 14 as we enter the season of Lent.

We hope you will join us for some of these upcoming events, including a weekly chapel in the church at 9:45 am every Wednesday or wildly cheering on our Eagles at a basketball game. It would be great to see you and share in the excitement of our school community. Our school website calendar has all the event times and locations if you ever want to join us!

Thank you for your continued support of our school,
Kate Thaelke
Principal

How good are you at remembering names?

Personally, remembering names is something I really continue to work at, because they don't come easy to me.

Imagine you are new to a group, to work, or the neighborhood and someone you hardly know or recently met calls you by name. How would that make you feel? Someone knowing your name, tells you that you made an impression on them, and they cared enough to remember your name. Now imagine you visited a church and on your second visit someone addressed you by name. How would you feel now?

Those who track growing churches state that if a new visitor can't call several people by their names after their third visit, it is unlikely they will keep coming.

The following story shares an encouragement to learn names:

Man Who Has Been Attending Same Church For 21 Years Figures Maybe It's Time To Learn Some People's Names

•Dec 18, 2023 • BabylonBee.com

OLIVE BRANCH, MS — A local man finally reached a significant life milestone after deciding that he should probably start learning the names of some of the people with whom he has attended church for the last 21 years.

"I guess it might be helpful to know what to call people," said Greg Phipps. "I've been coming here every Sunday for over two decades, but I never really felt like it was important to actually know people's names. I suppose I should probably learn a couple of them, at least."

When asked how he's gone this long without knowing anyone, Greg described the intricate system he has been using to identify his fellow attendees. "The church receptionist is 'Glasses Lady,'" he said. "And the guy who leads worship is 'Ripped Jeans Guy.' Honestly, I haven't really needed to know very many people other than that. Oh, there's also 'Preacher Dude.' He stands up and gives the sermons. Pastor Whoever."

Other members of the congregation at Pleasant Grove Bible Church confirmed that Phipps had been a member for 21 years now. "Yeah, he's a mainstay here," said one congregant. "He's always super friendly, ready with a handshake and a 'Hey there, buddy' or a 'How's it going, pal.' He's one of the more long-standing members of the church. We're happy to have him. Not sure I've ever caught his name, though."

At publishing time, Phipps had also committed to learning the church sound man's name so he could use it when interrupting him during service to let him know the music was too loud.

Can each of us make a commitment for 2024 to learn and remember each other's names? It is important!

Thank you!

Garry Stuhr

Women's Saturday Workouts!

Join me for workouts and fellowship on Saturday mornings. Women of all ages welcome! Whether you're an exercise expert or have never done a workout in your life, you are welcome to come!
