Old Testament Reading

Deuteronomy 10:12-21

[12] “And now, Israel, what does the Lord your God require of you, but to fear the Lord your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul, [13] and to keep the commandments and statutes of the Lord, which I am commanding you today for your good? [14] Behold, to the Lord your God belong heaven and the heaven of heavens, the earth with all that is in it. [15] Yet the Lord set his heart in love on your fathers and chose their offspring after them, you above all peoples, as you are this day. [16] Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no longer stubborn. [17] For the Lord your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who is not partial and takes no bribe. [18] He executes justice for the fatherless and the widow, and loves the sojourner, giving him food and clothing. [19] Love the sojourner, therefore, for you were sojourners in the land of Egypt. [20] You shall fear the Lord your God. You shall serve him and hold fast to him, and by his name you shall swear. [21] He is your praise. He is your God, who has done for you these great and terrifying things that your eyes have seen.”

P But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

C Thanks be to Thee, O Lord.

Just before he was taken to heaven, Moses gathered the Children of Israel together for one final word. The greatest of the Old Testament prophets sought to sum up the essence of the gracious covenant which God had established with them and to encourage them to love and serve the Lord. Israel was on the verge of the Promised Land. The Lord had chosen them to play a very special role in His plan of salvation. In order to carry out that role they needed to turn away from worldly things and live as His people.

Hallelujah, Praise the Lord

Text: Psalm 150; Music: Marc-Antoine Charpentier; Arranged by Dale Grotenhuis
Laudate Choir

Hallelujah, praise the Lord!

Hallelujah! Praise him in his mighty heavens; praise him for his acts of power.

Praise him for his excellent greatness. Praise the Lord.

Praise him with the sounding trumpet, praise him with the sounding trumpet; praise him with the harp and lyre.

Praise him with dancing, praise him with dancing; praise him with the strings and flute, with strings and flute.

Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah!

Praise him with clashing cymbals, clashing, clashing cymbals; praise him with resounding cymbals, with resounding cymbals.

Now let all things that have breath, let all things, all, let all things that have breath now praise him.

Now let all things, all things praise him. Praise the Lord!

Epistle Reading

1 Corinthians 1:1–9

[1] Paul, called by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and our brother Sosthenes, [2] To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints together with all those who in every place call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours: [3] Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. [4] I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that was given you in Christ Jesus, [5] that in every way you were enriched in him in all speech and all knowledge— [6] even as the testimony about Christ was confirmed among you— [7] so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift, as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ, [8] who will sustain you to the end, guiltless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. [9] God is faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

The people of the congregation in Corinth had slipped back into the ways of this world. Paul wrote to them as their brother in Christ and urged them to return to the wisdom of God, to trust and rely upon Him. He promised them that if they lived in the faith they would have the strength to overcome every challenge while we wait for Christ's return.

P But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

C Thanks be to Thee, O Lord.

Gospel Reading

St. Matthew 22:34–46

[34] When the Pharisees heard that [Jesus] had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together. [35] And one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. [36] “Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?” [37] And he said to him, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. [38] This is the great and first commandment. [39] And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. [40] On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets.” [41] Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question, [42] saying, “What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is he?” They said to him, “The son of David.” [43] He said to them, “How is it then that David, in the Spirit, calls him Lord, saying, [44] “‘The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet’? [45] If then David calls him Lord, how is he his son?” [46] And no one was able to answer him a word, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

P But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

C Thanks be to Thee, O Lord.

The commandments of God are the expression and the application of His love. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the Law. Love for God and for my neighbor eliminates the self-righteous legalism which is the consequence of sin. We are called to live in love as Christ loved us and gave His life for us.

Baptism Hymn Washed and Loved

By Jeff Armstrong © 2025

Laudate Choir

*Washed and loved O little child of God, washed and loved and now you're born again.
Washed and loved O little child of God, marked as God's own child.*

*1. You come here now a newborn, you come just as you are,
and now God takes ahold you and claims you as His own. (Refrain)*

2. Receive the cross O Lilly, the sign that marks you His, receive the love of Jesus, and know that you are His. (Refrain)

3. Receive the loves of others, this fam'ly you belong, to grow in love of others, and serve Him as you grow. (Refrain)

4. You come here now a newborn, a child born into sin, you leave here now as God's child, let heav'n and earth rejoice. (Refrain)

Canticle - Te Deum Laudamus

("We Praise Thee O Lord" is one of the most ancient and glorious hymns of the Church. Tradition indicates that it was composed by Ambrose of Milan on the occasion of the baptism of St. Augustine in A.D. 387. The "Te Deum" is an exalted song of praise and thanksgiving to God the Father and God the Son, based upon the outline of the Apostle's Creed. Martin Luther thought so highly of this great hymn that he suggested it be included among the basic creedal statements of Christendom. This morning we are blessed to add our voices to a grand chorus of saints and angels across the centuries in singing the praises of our wondrous God.)

1. We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.
3. Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Sab - a - oth;
5. The noble army of martyrs praise Thee;

1. All the earth doth worship Thee, the Fa - ther ev - er - last - ing.
3. Heaven and earth are full of the majes - ty of Thy glo - ry.
5. The holy Church throughout all the world doth ac - knowl-edge Thee:

2. To Thee all angels cry aloud, the heavens and all the powers there - in;
4. The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee;
6. The Father of an infinite majesty; Thine adorable true and on - ly Son,
7. Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ.

2. To Thee cherubim and seraphim con - tin - ual - ly do cry:
4. The goodly fellowship of the proph - ets praise Thee;
6. also the Holy Ghost, the Com - fort - er.
7. Thou art the everlasting Son of the Fa - ther.

8. When Thou tookest upon Thee to de - liv - er - man,
 10. Thou sittest at the right hand of God
 12. We therefore pray Thee, help Thy ser - vants,

8. Thou didst humble Thyself to be born of a vir - gin.
 10. in the glory of the Fa - ther.
 12. whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy pre - cious blood.

9. When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,
 11. We believe that Thou shalt come
 13. Make them to be numbered with Thy saints

9. Thou didst open the kingdom of heaven to all be - liev - ers.
 11. to be our Judge.
 13. in glory ev - er - last - ing.

14. O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine her - i - tage.
 16. Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day with - out sin.

14. Govern them and lift them up for - ev - - er.
 16. O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mer - cy up - on us.

15. Day by day we magni - fy Thee.
 17. O Lord, let Thy mercy be upon us, as our trust is in Thee.

15. And we worship Thy name ever, world with - out end.
 17. O Lord, in Thee have I trusted; let me never be con - found - ed.

Welcome

Volume LXXVIII

October 19, 2025

Number 42

Enter reverently, meditate quietly, worship sincerely, serve Christ faithfully.

It is our heartfelt prayer that all who worships here this day may encounter the love of our Savior. According to His promise, He is here today reaching out to us in love through Word and Sacrament. If you are seeking a church home, we hope that you have found it here so that we may rejoice in serving the Lord together. If we can be of service to you or your family in any way please do not hesitate to ask.

LIFE THOUGHTS / PRAYER: Trinity XVIII – Those who see abortion as just “another issue” and would support or encourage a woman to make such a choice fail to understand the scriptural concept of “neighbor” and have a false sense of what it means to love. Those who see both mother and unborn child as “neighbor” and take action to bring help and hope fulfill the second greatest commandment in the Law and reflect the love of Christ (Matthew 22:34-40). Dear Savior, grant me fully to appreciate Your grace to me and freely to extend it to all in need. Amen.

ATTENDANCE CARDS – MEMBERS (yellow) & VISITORS (blue), remember to fill out an attendance card listing all in attendance for your family. Please note any changes, otherwise you do not have to fill in the address information each week. It is appreciated if first-time visitors would include their address and phone number. Email and work numbers are helpful for inner-office needs. By filling out a card, your attendance and communing is recorded, and your comments are addressed. It is not necessary to indicate common or individual cup. Place cards in the offering plate or give to an usher on your way out. Thanks!

- The Cry-Room and the four row spans directly in front of it are reserved for parents with small children. Thank you.
- Hearing devices are available from the ushers if you need this assistance.

HOLY COMMUNION will be celebrated next on Reformation Sunday, October 26 at 9:30 AM. “Let a man examine himself before he eats of the bread and drinks of the cup.” 1 Corinthians 11:28

The Word of God teaches that the bread and wine of the Sacrament are the true Body and Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. This precious gift of God’s grace is to be received in a sense of reverent awe after careful self-examination. The Bible defines that self-examination as a personal recognition of the real presence of Christ’s Body and Blood in the Sacrament, and a repentant acknowledgment of my own sinfulness recognizing my absolute dependence upon Christ as the only source of forgiveness for my sin. Scripture further instructs that our participation in Christ’s Body and Blood together is the most profound and powerful way for Christians to acknowledge their unity in the faith. That is to say, when we share in the Body and Blood of Jesus at this altar, we are thereby indicating our common commitment to all of the doctrines of God’s Word as they are taught in this congregation. Because of these Biblical convictions, we respectfully request that visitors, who wish to join us in receiving the Body and Blood of Christ and thereby identify with our confession of Bible truth, speak with one of our pastors before attending the Lord’s Supper.

Bible Class & Sunday School Options for all:

8:15 AM –

7th- 8th Grade Non-OSL School Students Confirmation: Confirmation students learn together as they develop their faith, learning how to pray, read and study Scripture, and defend their faith. (Pastor Cholak – Youth 4:12 Room)

Genesis: The Beginning of All Things – A study of Creation in Scripture (Pastor White - Bible Class Room)

10:45 AM – Adults

How Should We Worship God? What Kinds of Music? Contemporary Or Traditional? Where Does the Liturgy Come From? Bring Your Questions & Comments... (Pastor White - Bible Class Room)

Enduring Faith: This adult class looks at the lessons the children are learning, with an adult perspective. New members and parents of Sunday School children are encouraged to come. All are welcome. (Bill Prestwood, C102)

Lutheran Confessions: Our Lutheran Confessions were developed out of a genuine concern with false teachings obscuring the glory and merit of our Savior. These unconditional affirmations are as understandable and poignant today as when they were written. Learn their history and development, as well as their relevance in the daily life of a Christian. Through discussion, you will see how others are asking the same questions and how Scripture offers solid, reliable answers. (James Kriegel, C101)

Women's Bible Study – Altogether Beautiful: A Study of the Song of Songs, by Heidi Goehmann (published by Concordia Publishing House). Walking through this study, you will learn how beautiful God sees you, but more important, you'll learn to ground your identity in the one who makes you beautiful—Jesus Christ. (Sarah Baughman, Family Room, Church)

Applying Scripture to Current Events: This class for young adults will focus on today's headlines and current events and discuss these topics in light of scripture and how the verses covered each week apply to everyday life. (Adam White, C106)

The Church Militant: God's Work in History: Picking up from the history of the early Church, we continue the history of how God preserved His Word within the medieval Church and brought about the Reformation in the 16th century. Combining history and theology, we will explore the connections of the Church past and present. (Karl Baughman, Cafeteria)

Welcome all who enjoy “Stitching” crafts - crochet, knit, cross stitch, embroidery, etc. This Fellowship Group meets on Tuesdays at 6:30pm in the Family Room. Come visit with others that enjoy working on projects and want help from others in the process. For questions, please contact Jackie Jolley-Lowery at jjlowery@osl.cc or call the church office.

Calling for Cross-stitchers! If you are interested in helping make the Chrismon ornaments for our Sunday School children, we are looking for stitchers! The patterns are simple and we will provide you with the materials. If interested, please contact Sarah in the church office.

Baby Blanket Ministry: We give out baby blankets weekly to the Blue Bus. Thanks to all those who contribute! Call Ethelene to learn more: 713-542-7534.

Also, HCFL needs part-time Bus drivers! Call Christine: 713-395-1330.

Our Savior Lutheran at Prayer: Subscribe to this short daily devotion and prayer that is published daily during the school year. Devotions are delivered directly to your email inbox, usually in the morning. Use QR code or go to our website:

www.osl.cc/oslatprayer

NEEDED: Flat Bed Sheets, any color or size, and in good condition, to sew onto the back of quilts. For any questions, see Sandi Hall. Donations can be brought to the church office.

The Stars: An Introduction

Tuesday, October 21

8:00 pm - Soccer Field

Join us as we explore the vast depths of God's creation as we look to the stars. The constellations Taurus and Orion are in good view and we might get to see a meteor shower.

Annual Fund Campaign

DONATE TODAY!

Last Day to Donate: Monday, Oct 20 @ Noon!

OSL is honored to continuing our deep commitment to standing for the dignity of every human life. For years, we've supported this life-saving ministry — through prayer, service, and by walking alongside women facing unplanned pregnancies. We're especially proud to host the original Big Blue Bus on our campus — a powerful symbol of hope that has helped save countless lives right outside the largest Planned Parenthood in the Western Hemisphere. Every step we take in this event helps provide free pregnancy tests, ultrasounds, confidential counseling, parenting classes, and material support to women in need. And the impact is real: 93% of pregnant women who come through the pregnancy centers embrace life for their babies!

Fellowship
And Study
Together
Wednesdays: through Nov 12

Light meal at 5:30pm, a short study at 6:30 (from many to choose), and evening prayer.

Menu: Oct 22 – Spaghetti with Meatballs, Garden Salad, Garlic Bread, Dessert

Choose from these Classes:

Pastor White: “Apocrypha The Hidden Books” – 400 years passed between Malachi at the end of the Old Testament and Matthew at the beginning of the New Testament. During these long centuries hundreds of books were written within Judaism which claimed to come from God. Filled with fascinating history and often bizarre theology they remain a fascinating part of the heritage of Judaism and Christianity. This introductory study will help you find the “Hidden Books” of the Apocrypha!

Jeff Armstrong: Comparative Religions – Find out what our fellow Christian brothers and sisters believe. Where are we united and where do we differ?

Jackie Lowery: Crochet 101 – Want to learn how to crochet or brush up on what you learned? We are going to start with the basics and build on that foundation to learn how to crochet independently. We will discover:

- The basics of different types of yarn and tools to use
- How to do basic stitches
- The “anatomy” of crochet stitches
- How to read crochet patterns and diagrams

Tools and yarn provided - you just need yourself! Come learn and support others that want to learn!

From the Principal’s Desk – Unpacking Classical Learning – Join Principal Thaelke for a behind-the-scenes look at the heart of learning at Our Savior Lutheran School. In this engaging series, you’ll explore the why behind what we teach—uncovering the purpose, philosophy, and power of a Classical Lutheran education. Whether you’re new to classical education or simply curious about what sets Our Savior apart, this series offers a clear, thoughtful, and inspiring look into the curriculum and culture that define our school. Topics will include:

1. From Calling to Classroom: The Heart of Classical Lutheran Education & the Art of Growing Great Teachers
2. Lingua Latina: Unlocking Minds, One Word at a Time
3. From Counting to Conquering: The Path of Mastery Math
4. Not One-Size-Fits-All: Assessing to Support Every Mind
5. Forming Bodies and Minds: The Joy of Play, the Gift of Limits

Childcare is provided. If you have any questions, please contact Pastor Cholak: scholak@osl.cc.
