

Writer's Workshop

July 9 – August 1, 2025

Wednesdays & Fridays

2:00-4 pm in the OSL Youth Room

Hey there, writer!

If you keep a journal, make notes about your thoughts, or send emails or texts to others, you are a writer. Some writers like to write for themselves, some like to write to share ideas with others, and still others write to bless their readers.

Whichever kind of writer you are, join us for a free writing workshop! We will learn about the various aspects of writing, do some individual exercises to help strengthen those writing muscles, and have opportunity to share our writing in a safe and supportive environment.

We'd love for you to join us! Register with the QR Code or email Sarah (sbaughman@osl.cc) in the church office.

July 9 → The Practice of Writing: our Whys, our Mindset, and finding a "Timothy"

July 11 → Our Words: responsibility, author voice, and solidifying the vocation of writing

July 16 → Structure: curating ideas, outlining or discovery writing, and story structure

July 18 → Character: development, growth/decay arcs, and character voice

July 23 → Setting: place, time, mood, and building a world

July 25 → Theme: genre themes, your life's theme, and weaving theme into your writing

July 30 → Publishing: public vs private writing, free vs paid, and which route to take

August 1 → Question & Answer: What did we not cover? (gathered throughout our time together)

