

ON YOUR FEET—PAUL, BARNABAS, AND A MAN BORN LAME

Unit 9, Lesson 6

Pointing to the Triune God

After making a great sports play, some professional athletes will point upward. Why do these athletes do this?

Paul and Barnabas did the same thing when the people in Lystra tried to make them gods. With their words to the crowd, Paul and Barnabas pointed to the one true triune God as our Creator, Redeemer, and Provider.

Directions: Read or listen to each situation below. Talk with a partner about what you could say or do to give God the glory in those situations. Then, on the upward-pointing finger, write your ideas.

Your teammates congratulate you after you score the winning basket in a basketball game.

Your grandma praises you for receiving straight A's on your report card.

Your classmates welcome you back to school after a long illness.

