

Welcome to the WSPC in Action: Block Party, September 27, 2025!

We're so glad you're here to celebrate community, culture, and connection. Today is all about neighbors coming together, sharing resources, learning from one another, and enjoying food, music, and fellowship. Witherspoon Street Presbyterian Church has a long history of community action, and this block party carries that spirit forward as we build a stronger, more just, and more joyful Princeton together.

WSPC in Action: Block Party – Your Guide to Table Numbers

1. Witherspoon Street Church – A welcoming community where all are spiritually nourished, uplifted, and inspired through faith, justice, and culture.
2. Paul Robeson House - Honors legacy of Paul Robeson, celebrating his lifelong dedication to civic engagement, social justice, and equality.
3. Arm in Arm and T.A.S.K. – Helping neighbors with meals and support so everyone has what they need to get by.
4. Princeton Library and Princeton YMCA – A place to learn, grow, and connect through books, activities, and community programs.
5. LALDEF and Not in Our Town – Standing up for immigrant rights and fighting for racial justice, inclusion, and fairness.
6. Princeton Health Dept and Princeton Human Services – Looking out for everyone's health and making sure families can access the services they need.
7. Tioga Franklin Savings Bank and Mercer County Board of Elections – Empowering people through financial tools and encouraging everyone to use their voice by voting.
8. Princeton Mutual Aid and Bayard Rustin Center – Neighbors helping neighbors and creating safe spaces for LGBTQ+ pride, advocacy, and care.
9. Mercer County Board of Social Services (mobile outreach vehicle) - Committed to supporting and strengthening local families by providing essential social services, resources, and assistance to those in need.

WSPC in Action: Block Party Speakers Schedule:

Delano Whitfield - Emcee

- Dr. Cecelia B. Hodges, Director of the WSPC Verse Speaking Choir – A Poem: “We Are The Hands, We Are the Feet” – Anonymous (11:30 am)
- Elder Evan Peal – Topic: Purpose of the community event (12:00–12:03 pm)
- Rev. Dr. Kenneth Ngwa, Interim Pastor of Witherspoon Street Presbyterian Church – Topic: Faith and Community (12:30–12:35 pm)
- Rev. Dr. Charles Boyer, Pastor, Greater Mt. Zion AME & Director at Salvation and Social Justice – Topic: Actions and solutions in today's troubling times (1:10–1:15 pm)
- Shirley Satterfield, Member of WSPC and Historian – Topic: A Brief History of Community Action and Social Justice at Witherspoon (2:00–2:03 pm)
- The Honorable Leighton Newlin, Princeton Councilman, Princeton Township – Topic: A Community in Action (2:15–2:18 pm)

- Caty Dominguez, Latin American Legal Defense Fund – Topic: Immigration Issues in America Today (2:20–2:23 pm)
- State Senator Andrew Zwickler – Topic: Solutions in NJ Legislation; How NJ is Protecting its Most Vulnerable Communities (2:30–2:35 pm)

WSPC in Action: Block Party Food, Children Activities, Games

Treats & Eats

Get your punch ticket at WSPC Table #1! Visit ten tables, get your ticket punched, and embark on a flavor adventure. You can use your fully punched ticket as a $15 voucher for Ms. Fu's Yummy Food Truck or to sample pizza from Nomads, sandwiches from Olives, or cookies from Small World. Please note that vouchers are limited to the first 100 visitors. Finger foods will be available after 12 PM, but there is no guarantee on how long it will last.

Ms. Fu's Yummy Food Truck – From bold Asian-inspired dishes to American classics with a twist, every bite is a fun, delicious surprise.

Finger Food at WSPC Fellowship Hall – Pizza from Nomads Pizza, Sandwiches from Olives and cookies from a small world! Step inside, grab a plate, and refuel while you mingle and soak up the block party vibes.

Coupons for Food – If you want something different use the coupon from Honza a Japanese restaurant located at 300 Witherspoon St, Unit 102C and Nomads Pizza.

Orville Redenbacher Popcorn – Pop, crunch, munch! Grab a free bag of this light, buttery, perfectly popped popcorn and snack your way through the fun.

Stay hydrated – Pick up an 8 oz water bottle or two from the orange and white round cooler located at various points on Quarry St. Please throw your empty bottles in a recycling bin.

Children's Corner: Fun & Adventure!

Giggles & Games for Kids – A festival of fun awaits with face painting, exciting games, hands-on STEM activities, free books, and so much more—perfect for little explorers to play, learn, and laugh!

Witherspoon Street Presbyterian Church