Thankful for Christmas! It is officially November which means we can start talking about Christmas right?? Well, yes and no, in my opinion. While I think Candace would celebrate Christmas beginning in September, I have fought to give each holiday its due. I've always said Christmas music before Thanksgiving was just wrong. It feels like Thanksgiving is an afterthought. Don't get me wrong, I think it's kind of sad that we need a holiday to remind us to be thankful – but at the same time – it is good to be thankful! So, I don't want to breeze past the opportunity to be thankful. At the same time, Christmas is an amazing, beautiful, gracious celebration of light and life and it deserves more time! Certainly, all the plans and activities demand more time! After all, we are celebrating the birth of our savior! We ought to do both that and be thankful all year long! So, in the spirit of this newsletter, I submit that we be thankful for Christmas!

If you have heard me preach about Christmas at all you will likely know that my favorite part of the Christmas story, is an often-overlooked person by the name of Simeon. Luke 2:25 tells us Simeon was a "righteous and devout" man, that he was "waiting for the consolation of Israel and the Holy Spirit was upon him." High praise coming from Scripture. Then we learn that, "it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ." Wow! That's huge. Mankind had been waiting since the garden of Eden, for this promised redeemer! Simeon, too, waited, but he is told his waiting will not last forever – he is told that God will keep His promise and it will happen in his lifetime. So, one day when Simeon is in the temple, Mary and Joseph walk in with their baby boy, and the Spirit told Simeon this is the one! The wait is over – salvation has come! While it would be another 33 years before that salvation was realized, this story reveals yet another reason that we have to be thankful for Christmas, because it is proof that God is a God who keeps His promises. He calls normal, faithful, righteous, and devout people to be a part of the story.

What about you? Salvation HAS come; His name is Jesus. Do you know Him? Have you surrendered to Him as Lord and Savior? If so, then let us be thankful together.

"Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good, for His steadfast love endures forever." Psalms 107:1

So Happy Thanksgiving and Merry Christmas! I look forward to celebrating both together!

In Christ, Pastor Justin

Christmas at Cross Road

CR Kids

One of my favorite things of working with children is hearing their prayers and praises. They are thankful for every little thing, as we all should be.

They are thankful for sunshine, family, music, friends, the playground, and the stars. We are thankful for all our volunteers who help make Sunday mornings and Wednesday nights a success. We're thankful for all the prayers spoken between those days for our children and ministries to grow. As we reflect during this time of year on what we're thankful for, don't forget even the smallest of things. Jesus wants to hear from us. Be bold like the children in your prayers and praises.

CR Students

The teens have been diving into the book of James this past month and plan to wrap up this study in November. We have covered topics that have been key for growing in our Christian walk. James is full of practical wisdom to help us grow.

We have discussed topics such as learning that our words have power and we can either choose to use that power to encourage and lift up others or to tear down others. James goes on to tell us that if we are believers in Christ that we should not do both, but rather choose to let our words build up others. James also encourages us to continue to seek wisdom, not just any wisdom, but true wisdom, Biblical or heavenly wisdom. We do this by staying in God's Word and making our relationship with Christ personal and to cherish our time in His Word. - Pastor Andrew Wells

Worship Ministry

It's been a year of seeing God continually showing Himself faithful.

I am grateful, thankful, and in awe of His provision this year in my own life and family and for our church. This Psalm below is my prayer for CRBC for the remainder of 2025.

"Oh come, let us sing to the Lord; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation! Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise!" Psalm 95:1-2 ESV

Please mark your calendars for December 14th at 6pm for our CRBC Worship Choir Christmas musical presentation of What a Glorious Night! This Gospel-centered presentation is sure to prepare your heart and mind to celebrate the birth of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Many of our church's talented vocalists will be featured soloists in this presentation and will lead you in a meaningful time of rejoicing and worship!

HELP US LORD Oh, dear God, we live in the time when Your Kingdom is preached. (Luke 16:16) Thank You for Your promises in The Word.

May I not try to help You by my own strength. Forbid that LORD! Uzzah died because he tried to stop the Ark of the Covenant from falling. (I Chronicles 13) Not by my strength do I want to witness the Gospel; rather by The Holy Spirit! Jesus commands us to go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature. (Mark 16:15) Help us to be obedient so that others hear the Truth and are saved. Overcome us Father God because You are mighty and Your will is perfect. I cry out to You that You have Your way- and that I be obedient, LORD. I am incapable of good without You. I repent of sin and ask that I submit perfectly in Jesus' name to Your ways. Give us peace by Your grace. May we speak the Truth to our neighbors. We pray this together in Jesus' name, Amen - Submitted by Melda Dyer, Prayer Coordinator
