PARENTAL ADVISORY WARNING

Beginning January 8, we will be studying the book of Hosea. While we will make every effort to be tactful and appropriate, there are some mature themes in this book. I wanted to make sure that parents were aware. If you are comfortable with your child being a part of this series, then as always, they are welcome. If you prefer to shield them from such themes as prostitution, adultery, and infidelity, then they can head over to Building B with Pastor Dave for Kid's Church. They will have an awesome time.

JANUARY WOMEN'S NIGHT

THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

It is not often that January 1st falls on a Sunday; in fact, it will not happen again for eleven years. I find it interesting that we start a new week and a new year all at the same time. Often, we tie our goals and resolutions to new beginnings. Have you ever said, I'll start Monday? Or I'll start when the new year comes? Well, today we have both a new week and a new year.

“As we go into this new year, let me encourage you not to give up on yourself.”

People look at the new year in different ways. Some are excited and set a number of resolutions. Others view it as little more than another day. Regardless of where you fall, it is not a bad time to look at our walk with the Lord. How is your walk? Are you doing well? Are there things you would like to improve? Have you failed in the past? Are you hoping to do better?

When we lived in Corpus Christi, we belonged to the Corpus Christi Athletic Club. One day, I received a phone call asking me if we were doing alright because we had not been to the gym. Talk about accountability. To be honest, I was a little shocked. Never had my gym called me in the past. Believe me, there were plenty of times that my membership could have been classified as inactive.

When I did return to the Athletic Club, I asked them about it. They told me that they always tried to stay connected with people. They went on to say that even if it is your 15th time setting a goal, this might be the time it sticks. I was told that they never give up on someone.

As we go into this new year, let me encourage you not to give up on yourself. Maybe you have failed 15 times before. But maybe this is the time it sticks. Maybe this is the time you achieve your goal. Maybe this is the time you will not fail. Set some good goals for the new year. Give yourself a chance to be the you that you have always wanted to be.

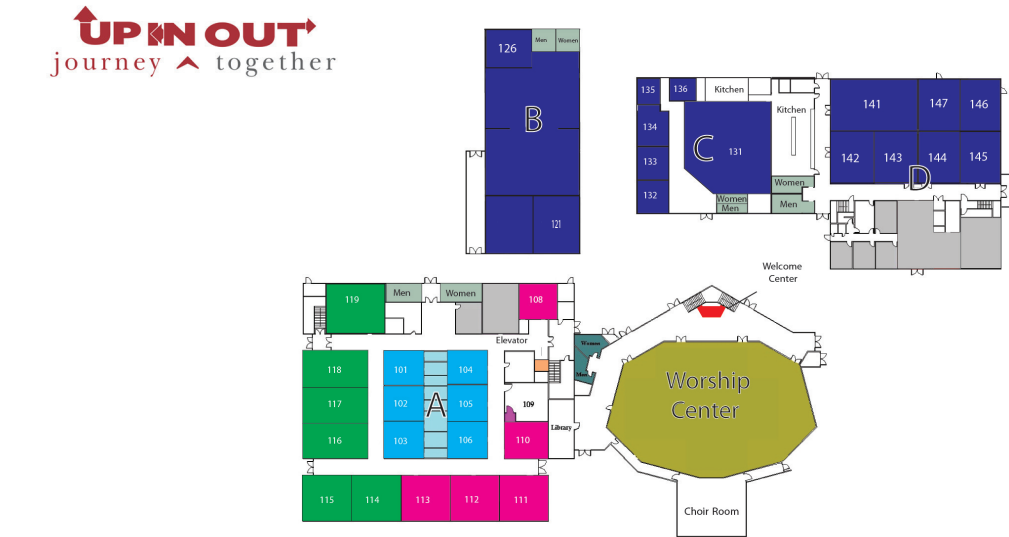

Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.
