THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

Good Morning NBC Family and Friends. I hope that you had a blessed week and are looking forward to the week ahead. I know we may not like the weather that is said to come, but hopefully we will all have a warm place to be this week, and we can tough through it.

“ Can we focus in on the face of God and seek him daily so that others can see him? ”

This morning, we are going to be building on the idea we talked about a couple of weeks ago when we looked at Romans 12:1-2. We will be spending our time focused on Matthew 6:19-24. You and I all have the same desire, we want to worship God in all that we do. In saying this, I also understand how hard it is and how many things are thrown at us to distract us from what we are called to. That’s our focus this morning. Can we focus in on the face of God and seek him daily so that others can see him?

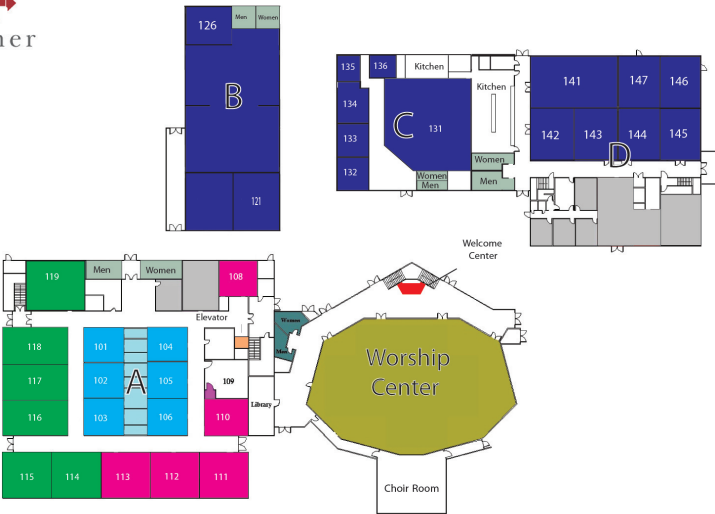

Do you remember right before covid started a few years ago, how busy you were? What about during covid? Now that we understand this thing is going to be around, what does your new normal look like? What things grab your attention? Do you have a good grasp on what your time suckers are? Since covid started, I have been looking at this passage and wondering why it gets so hard to be faithful in all the things and places God has called me to. I hope that we can refocus and journey better together.

On another note... RAD Weekend is in just a couple of weeks and we are gearing up. Seems like it is going to be another great weekend and plenty of students. Will you be praying for all involved, students, adults, band, speaker, transportation, our food people, and so much more. I want our students to see Jesus and know Him. Thank you, church, for allowing us to serve along side of you and these wonderful students.
