THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

Good Morning church! I hope that you had a wonderful week last week, and are looking forward to another great week this week, even though it will start out extremely cold. This morning we will be focusing on love. The love we receive from God should foster in us a love for people. It is important for us to understand and use this love from God to the world wisely. We are His hands and feet here on earth. We are also His story of love for others to see and experience. I hope and pray that after this morning we will be encouraged to go out into our world and influence the lives around us. If that is in schools or in our work places, we hold a key to the cure of hurt and pain for the world.

I pray that God moves and works in a powerful way this morning.
