THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

Sin can have a radical impact on our lives. Not only does sin impact the way we live our lives, but it also impacts us spiritually. Throughout scripture, we see the high cost of sin in others. We see sin cost people their home and security. We see sin destroy families. We see sin lead to deceptiveness. And, we see sin drive a wedge between the God we serve and those who He intends to follow Him.

Today we will look at the impact of sin in Herod's life. Herod had incredible power and influence. These things put him in a place that he could bring about great good or great harm. Unfortunately, Herod did not choose to use his power for good. Instead, Herod allowed selfishness to take over which resulted in great harm.

As we look at Herod, we will learn how we need to deal with our own sin. We do not want sin's blinding effects to impact us the way they did him. Instead of ignoring our sinfulness, we want to be honest and deal with it out in the open. By dealing aggressively with sin, we can avoid the pitfalls therein.

As we consider Herod and the fact that sin overran him, I pray that we will look at our own lives and hearts honestly. I pray that we would be willing to face our sin, deal with, and by God's grace – move past it. May we find true freedom as God leads us forward.

Honored to be your pastor,

DARRELL
