THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

In life, we will make any number of important decisions. Each of these decisions will have an impact on our lives. We make decisions such as: Will we go to college? What college will we go to? Will we get married? Who will we marry? What job will we take? Where will we live? How will we approach our finances? Of course, there are any other number of consequential decisions we make regularly. However, the most significant decision we will ever make is in relationship to Jesus Christ.

“However, the most significant decision we will ever make is in relationship to Jesus Christ.” Each of us must decide for ourselves who we understand Jesus to be. For some, they will view Him as little more than a great teacher. Some will view Him as a prophet. Still others will think that He was just a great man. My deepest hope for you, however, is that you would know Him as your Lord and Savior.

To know Him in this way is life changing. It means I live my life with a different agenda. It means that I now have a larger purpose in life. It means that I no longer live my life for myself, but for something much bigger.

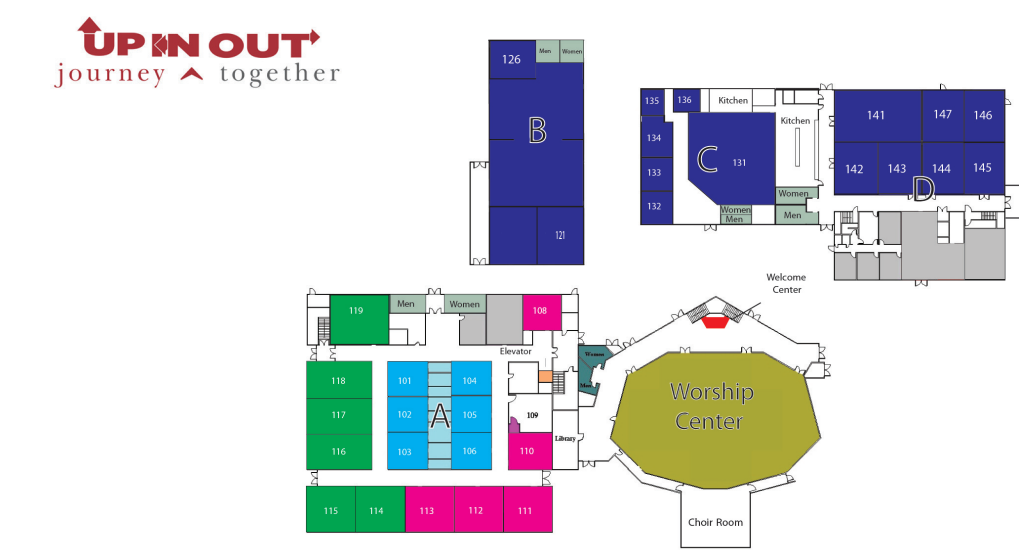

Of course, making such a decision to surrender is not easy. We realize that we are giving up control. We know that we are giving up our rights. It is not a simple thing to let go and just follow the Lord. But this is exactly what God has called us to do.

If you have not come to the point of surrender, my prayer for you is that you would do just that. I pray that you would recognize any risk, or any loss is fully worth it. I pray that you would hear the call of Christ to take up your cross and follow Him. I pray that the call to live for more would overwhelm you and bring you to the point that you embrace faith.

Honored to be your pastor,

DARRELL
