THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

At the start of every year, pastors around the world do the same thing; they pull out their calendars and they mark this Sunday. Why would we do such a thing? Well, for several reasons. Practically speaking, we know that it is going to be the largest Sunday of the year. People who do not come to church the rest of the year will be here today. Pastors feel this weight. We hope to preach in such a way to touch these lives that we may only have one shot. Yes, we believe in the importance of the gospel that much.

Pastors also look forward to this Sunday for emotional reasons. We know that it is going to be an exciting Sunday. People will buy special clothes for this day, they will take pictures, and there is just an extra spring in everyone’s step. It makes for an exciting day.

However, the most important reason pastors get excited about this Sunday is a spiritual one. What this Sunday represents is what our entire salvation rests upon. It is the reason that churches exist. It is the foundation of our ministries. This Sunday reminds us that “Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures” (1 Corinthians 15:3-4).

Let us cherish all that this day has to offer. Take it all in, the kiddos in cute outfits, the family gatherings, the extra energy in worship, the guests that are here – enjoy it all. But let us not forget the most important point of all, we serve a risen Savior who is alive today and seated on His throne. However we might have looked at life, Jesus has changed it all.

Honored to be your pastor,

DARRELL

3. It is important that we _____ (vs. 6-7).
4. We must _____ what we have seen (vs. 8-11).
5. God’s work should always cause us to _____ (vs. 12).
