THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

Traditionally, we greet each other on Easter by saying, “He is risen!” The response is then, “He is risen indeed!” However, if we are not careful, this will be little more than a tradition when in reality, it represents so much more.

“Our entire Christian faith rests on the resurrection. If you take away the resurrection, Jesus is little more than the leaders of all other religions.”

Our entire Christian faith rests on the resurrection. If you take away the resurrection, Jesus is little more than the leaders of all other religions. It is in the resurrection that we have victory. It is in the resurrection that Jesus proved that He was God in flesh. It is in the resurrection that our hope of eternal life rests. Take away the resurrection, and you take away everything.

So, this morning when you are greeted with, “He is Risen!” and you respond, “He is risen indeed,” know that it is more than a statement, it is a victory cry. Our Lord is risen, and that changes everything. What was loss is now gain. What was death is now life. What was defeat is now victory. What was an end is now a new beginning.

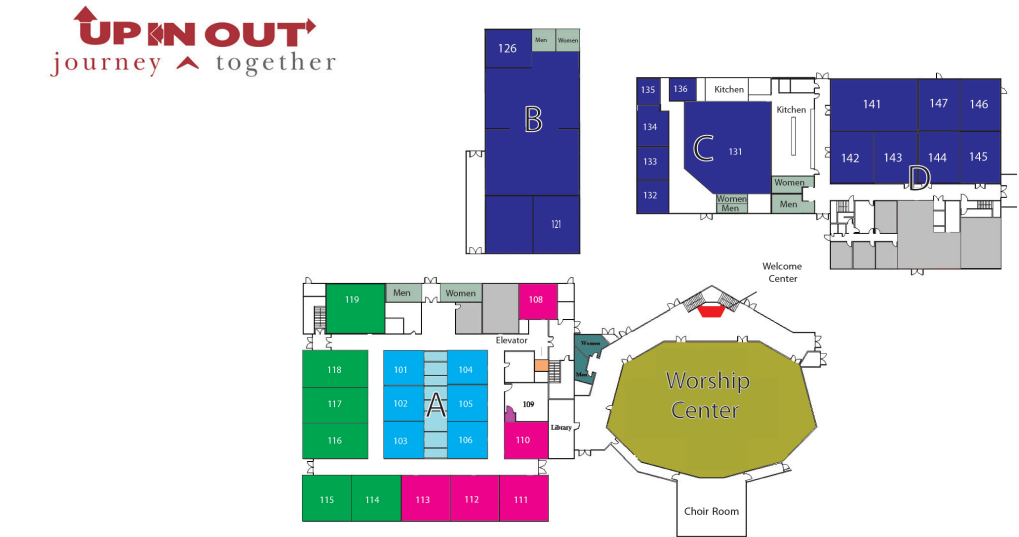

These truths are not for the disciples or first century Christians alone. They are true for us as well. Jesus Christ makes all things new. Maybe you find yourself in a place this morning where life has not turned out as you hoped. Maybe you have done things you regret. Maybe you have things in your life that you wish you could undo. Well, we cannot undo the past, but we can untether ourselves from the past and build a new future. However, we cannot do this on our own, it is Jesus, not our will power, that makes all things new.

If you have not embraced the resurrection and all that it offers, I pray that today would be the day. I pray that you, just like the disciples, will be able to make the jump from hopelessness to great hope.

Honored to be your pastor,

DARRELL
