THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

Today, we celebrate mothers. Mothers are the ones who sacrifice for our good. They tend to be selfless, tireless, and always there when needed. If you are a mom, we say thank you for all you do. We know that we could not do what we do without you. It is because of you that we have become who we are.

“If you are a mom, we say thank you for all you do. We know that we could not do what we do without you.”

We are also aware this morning that there are those who deeply desire to be moms, but for whatever reason, God has not made that a reality as of yet. We want you to know that we see you. We love you. And we are praying for you as you wait. We are anxious to see the day that God answers your prayer, and we will be there to celebrate with you.

We are also aware that Mother’s Day may be a sad day for some. Maybe your mom is no longer here. Maybe she has gone on to be with the Lord. Today, we grieve with you. We know that losing a mom leaves a void that no other can fill. Know that we are praying for peace and comfort. We also pray that today would be a day filled with sweet memories.

Maybe you are a mom and today is painful because your children have made choices that hurt. We pray with you that God would move in their life and draw them back. We wait anxiously for God to move and for their to be reconciliation. We trust that their story is not over yet.

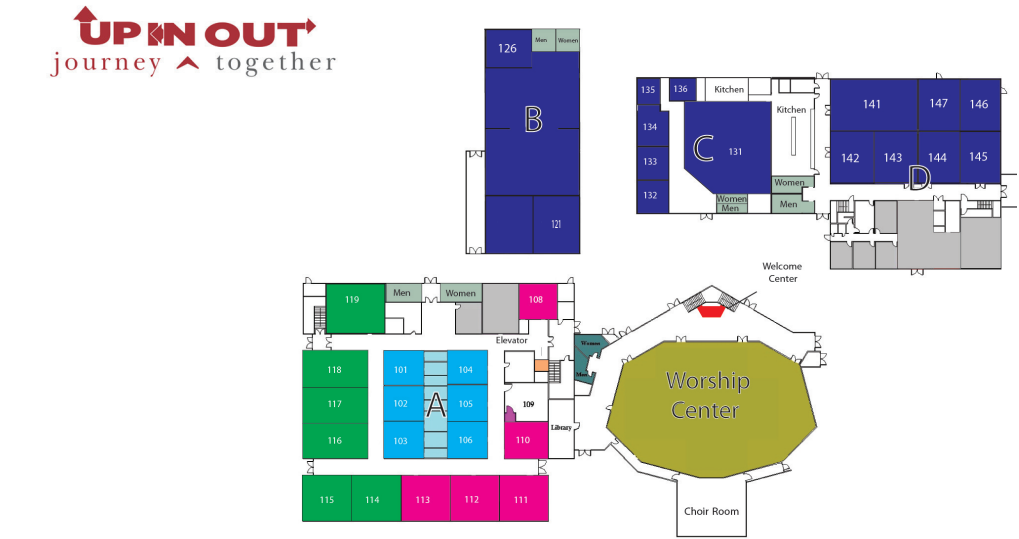

Lastly, for those who have lost a child, we pray for peace today. I cannot imagine the pain and grief of losing a child. However, we know that our God does. We pray today, that you would sense God’s presence, His comfort, and the peace that only He can give.

For all, we pray that today would be a blessed day in the Lord. Wherever you need Him to meet you, we pray you will experience his presence. And, once again, to all our moms, we say thank you.

Honored to be your pastor,
