THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

Good Morning Northside Family! I cannot believe that this is the first time in fourteen months that we have been able to worship all together, in one service. Last March we saw the unimaginable happen as our world got flipped upside down, but today we get to celebrate and worship our Lord Jesus Christ TOGETHER! I have prayed so hard for this day, and now that it is here I cannot tell you how excited I am. Even though the last few months have been hard, we have also seen God doing some amazing things. In our Summit Student Ministry we have seen new students coming and become an active part of our group. The past couple of months we have seen more and more families coming back to meeting face to face, which means we have seen a lot more students back in weekly services. Just two weeks ago we saw seventy-three folks on our last MidWeek Service of the school year. We hosted our First Annual Summit Student's Got Talent Show, and let me tell you we saw a lot of talent. We had fifteen different acts, ranging from ABC's done backwards to some awesome singing and musical acts. It was an amazing night! I cannot tell you how good it felt to see so many students and families back in our youth space.

About this time last year I was still hoping and planning to have a “normal” summer, but as the days went on we were seeing normal slip away. It was so hard to not have camps, VBS, and all the other things that summer allows, but now that summer 2021 is here, we are back to another jam packed summer. All things are almost back to normal, and I cannot wait for camps. I cannot wait for a week of sleeping in an uncomfortable, twin sized bunk bed. I know it may sound even more strange, but I can wait to smell Axe's body spray mixed with boy funk. I wish I could express how much I love being a part of teenager's lives and how I will never take for granted God allowing me to be involved with the amazing families we have here. We have had several people praying over the past couple of months for camp and summer events, and the feeling of excitement and expectation is filling the air. In a few short weeks high school camp will happen, and in July we will attend junior high camp. The Sunday before we leave we will have a list available of every person attending that week's camp and wristbands with a person's name on them. We would love for you all to join either praying through the list or just over one person for the week. I am praying that God breaks down walls and changes lives.

This morning, as we celebrate all that God has been and is doing among us, I want us to think about our unity as a body and family. In our personal walks we might find it easier to draw closer to God and His church when times are tough, but as things get easy again we might find ourselves less dependent on God and the church. I am not sure why this happens, but it does. I want to encourage all of us to draw closer to God and to each other as we watch COVID slowly fade in the rearview mirror.
